TODAY'S WORD

Don't let the Devil take you down "D" Avenue. Every believer will battle feelings of disappointment. Oftentimes our strong hope and ardent faith collide with devastating unexpected realities. When our prayers are not answered and our dreams are shattered, we easily get discouraged and disappointed. But I have come to realize that every divine appointment is often preceded by a great disappointment. Every spiritual breakthrough is often preceded by a spiritual breakdown. Every divine conversation is often preceded by personal confusion. Giant heroes of faith are often those that arise from ground zeroes. No matter how painful your disappointment may be, don't go down the Devil's "D" Avenue. Disappointment leads to discouragement. Discouragement leads to despair. Despair leads to depression. Depression leads to disease. Disease leads to death. Therefore, whenever

We are living in the midst of the greatest crises our generation has ever experienced. Not since the dark days of World War II has the world been so suddenly shaken by an invisible enemy whose footprints cover the earth.

But we must remember this truth —we serve the One who created heaven and earth, who calls the stars by name and holds the seven seas in the palm of His hand. He is the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, who parted the Red Sea for Moses and provided fresh manna from heaven. He is the One who gives streams in the desert and makes a way where there seems to be no way. This same God has not "given us a spirit of fear" —of panic or stress — "but a spirit of power and love and a sound mind" (2 Timothy 1:7). Like Joshua, we are to be "determined and confident" in our calling despite the obstacles that come our way (Joshua 1:9). I ask that you do not doubt in the dark what you knew in the light. The Almighty richly blesses those who bless His people, Israel (Genesis 12:3). God is a God who sees, and He has looked upon our present hardship and taken note. Jehovah Jireh has promised to provide for

LOCKDOWN GUIDE FOR PARENTS:

SUNDAY SCHOOL SPIRITUAL GIFTS (MANIFESTATION OF THE SPIRIT)

I Corinthians 12:1-13

MEMORY VERSE: "Even so you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, let it be for the edification of the Church that you seek to excel." I Corinthians 14:12.

INTRODUCTION: The Bible describes the Church by three figures: (1) A-Body (2) A Building or Temple and (3) A Bride. The term "body" is used to speak of the Church and its functions. Paul used the analogy of the human body with its many parts to illustrate the Church. He explained that though we have one body, we are members of that body and every member has a part to play to edify itself in love. Each part of the body contributes to the welfare of the body, likewise the Church. Every born again person is a member of the body of Christ and is designed to FUNCTION and CONTRIBUTE to the EDIFICATION of the body. For this purpose, to materialize, the Holy Spirit gave the spiritual and service gifts to an individual in the body of Christ to function with

3. God the Father assigns Service Gifts and respective operations to the above two lists of gifts. I Cor. 12:6

CLASS DISCUSSION

1. How many are the gifts of the Bible altogether?
2. How many gifts are under manifestation, service and ministerial gifts? Mention them.
3. Who assigns manifestation, service and ministerial gifts?

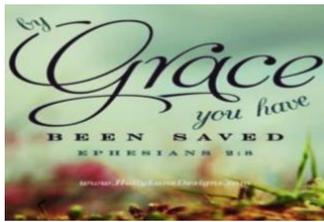

CONCLUSION: Today, we have seen the categories of Spiritual Gift, the number of gifts in each category and where they are found. In the subsequent lessons, we will begin to dig deep into the manifestation gifts.

LORD'S PRAYERS

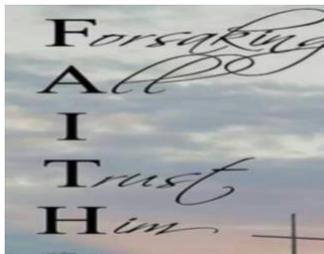

Today, I commit you into the hands of the Almighty God for multiple blessings, abundant grace, success and mercies. God will speak comfort to your soul, He will strengthen you. He will always journey with you throughout this week and beyond. He will lighten up your path and establish your good thoughts. His favour will go before you and His hand will uphold you. He will open the door of happiness, peace and progress for you. His joy and blessings shall never depart from your household in Jesus mighty name. Amen.

With the special grace of God, I destroy every satanic connection in the air, water and soil against your life in Jesus name. The goodness and mercy of God shall continue to follow you all the days of your life and His glory shall surely manifest in your life. May His blessing of joy abide within you. May His blessing of peace rest upon you. May His blessing of love flow through you and may all the blessings from heaven be yours today and always. Amen.

The Lord is our shield and strong tower. His unblinking eyes are watching

I hope you know today that He didn't die for the beautiful & dressed up you that sits in church or reads their bible everyday. He died for the you that cries at night & wakes up too late for church & makes unforgivable mistakes & goes weeks without thanking him. Don't forget that

"We know Satan will attack weak spots first. Forty days of fasting left Jesus famished, so Satan began with the topic of bread. Jesus' stomach was empty, so to the stomach Satan turned. Where are you empty? Are you hungry for attention, craving success, longing for intimacy? Be aware of your weaknesses. Bring them to God before Satan brings them to you."

KNOWING WHEN TO QUIT

"When I let go of what I am, I become what I might be. When I let go of what I have, I receive what I need." - Lao Tzu.

Sometimes quitting is an act of strength and not weakness. It is better to quit than hanging on to something that is obviously killing you. Sometimes you cannot move forward in life until you let go; the important thing is to never forget what the hurt taught you.

My friend, if you want to fly, you've got to leave the ground. If you want to move forward, you've got to let go of that which drags you down. You see, there are some struggles in life that must be continued, and there are some that must be brought to a close - the 2020 is perfect vision. May our sight focus on the Lord and living according to His perfect vision for us

The Blessing of God's Timing

It's frustrating to desire something—a solution, position, experience, relationship, or possession—but sense the Lord saying "no" or "not now."

This is especially difficult as Christians in a culture that tells us it's possible to have anything we want, if only we'll work harder or sacrifice more. This fundamental belief has led to all kinds of heartache, from workaholism to exploitation and dishonesty. It doesn't matter how, the underlying message says, as long as we get what we want.

But the truth is, God never promises that we will have everything we want or always be comfortable. In fact, He never even suggests we're entitled to any of that.

Instead, what He promises is to complete the work He's begun in us: to restore, reward, and make us the people He created us to be. Compared to that, what do any of our earthly desires matter?

Think About It

- Can you remember a time when you've wanted something but couldn't have it? How did you feel? Did you behave differently as a result?
- Have you ever felt impatient with God? What could it look like to let Him work in His own timing?

TURN BACK TO GOD

Are You Fake or Real?

After the church collection on Sunday, I came across a fake currency. I am not sure of its owner, but now it has been given to the Lord, knowingly or unknowingly. If it is knowingly, the person has done a great mistake. God will not accept fake currencies. I had a thorough check with that fake one. It was the photo copy of the real one. Now everything is possible, still the person who made it was not able to give the real identification mark for that currency. It was missing.

That day evening I was having a few thoughts in my mind. I judged quickly when I am cheated. Often I act as a fake one in front of God. Seldom am I aware of this nature in me. I have a fake conscience, fake heart and a fake personality. My real personality could have been Jesus'. I am called to holiness. I am called to become another Christ in this world in my words, deeds and thoughts.

At the time of baptism I was also given the light to become the light, by getting strength from the real light. I have been given the identification mark as the child of God, a faithful member in the Church. However I prefer to use the photocopy of this identity. I go for prayer and communion without being aware of its importance in my life. The real identity is being tapped. Often I enjoy going and praying to God like that fake one, without knowing that God will not accept my fake nature. My conscience is not clear. Although, I claim that I repent, in my conscience still remains the fake character which I hesitate to give up. Through that incident, God was teaching me a lesson that instead of judging the one who did it I have to judge my fake nature. I came to conscious about the unreal in me. If God wants to arrest me, embarrass me, surely He could have done it. However He forgives.

God did not create anybody as Xerox copy of His image but created the human being as His own image. To live in that image is imitation. Here one loses the image, like that fake currency. Today there are fake medicines, fake doctors, fake professionals etc. Once they are caught by the civil law, their punishment will be greater. The fake physician might be generous person, but his identity itself shows the person is duplicate in heart, likewise the fake professionals. The fake medicines might be cheaper and easily accessible; but it will not be advisable.

The nature of these fake ones to under-estimate the value of the real one comes from a fake conscience. They might be smarter but not intelligent; they might be cheaper but not curable. As a follower of Christ one cannot be fake but real. We are called to imitate Jesus, but not to fake him through our actions. There are people who got two ways of life. They follow the world and they try to be close to God. They also give to God, something which they receive from their nature. They can be double tongued, speak sweetly and convincingly. They are like the chameleon able to change their colours.

Even they are ready to go to church. Their intention is not to follow Jesus, but to save their face which they change according to the situation. This is the fake nature in human being, which Jesus will not accept; although one might think that he is not aware of it. To understand the real nature in one, what can be done? When we counted that money, we checked its colour, printing, the golden (Silver) lines etc. The same way one has to go through the proper test, a heart surgery. The best surgeon in the world is Jesus Christ. Allow Him to cut ones' heart piece by piece. One might encounter the fakeness attached to one's heart. Sometimes it is very hard to be removed, but He will be able to help one who is ready to cooperate with the real doctor.

Again be aware, that there are fake doctors, who might say that it is necessary in today's world, otherwise one cannot live. But Jesus operates the heart; he will also help to heal it. He also might help you to have a proper test about your senses. One has to wait patiently to get the result, because the senses also can become the fake ones. The fake currencies may be less, the fake medicines might be less, fake doctors and professionals might be less but fake, and duplicate personalities are much. Am I being counted one among them by Jesus? If so, now on take a decision to discover my true nature. Constant prayer and frequent receiving of sacraments, especially sacrament of reconciliation, can help one to be real.

THE FOUNTAIN YOUTH

OVERCOMERS

God is a trinity—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Man is a trinity also—body, soul, and spirit. What is the soul? The soul is myself! My body is just the "house" in which I live. Someday, my body will die, but my soul will live forever.

Because we were created "in the image of God." we have something that no animal has. We have a spirit! The spirit is that part of us which can know God and receive His life.

The most wonderful thing about us is this: God can live in us! God is a Spirit, and because we have a spirit, God can live in our spirit. There is nothing more wonderful than knowing God and having Him live in us.

Adam is called God's "first man" because he was the first man—the head of the human family. God did not create millions of people to fill the earth. He created only one man, Adam, and one woman, Eve. From Adam and Eve came the whole human race.

God placed Adam and Eve in a beautiful garden. We have never seen a garden as beautiful as this garden because it was planted by God Himself. This garden was not only beautiful, but it was filled with all the good things that Adam and Eve needed for food.

God told Adam and Eve that they could freely eat of every tree in the garden except one—"the tree of knowledge of good and evil." God commanded them not to eat the fruit of this tree. God said that, if they disobeyed Him and ate the fruit of this tree, they would surely die.

...y in the beautiful garden which God had planted for them. In the cool of the evening, God came to walk and talk with them. This was the best thing of all. God was pleased with all that He had created. The Bible says, "God saw everything that He had made, and behold, it was Very Good" (Genesis 1:31).

Why did God create man? God created man to love Him and to be loved by Him. Of all that God created, we human beings are the most important to God because we can know Him, we can love Him, and we can bring joy to His heart. God said, "...My delights were with the sons of men" (Proverbs 8:31).

Because God created us, we belong to Him. The Bible says, "Know that the Lord He is God: it is He that has made us, and not we ourselves; we are His people, and the sheep of His pasture" (Psalm 100:3).

Why did God create all things?

The Bible tells us why God created all things. He created them for His glory and for His pleasure. Because He is the Creator of all things, God alone is worthy of all worship. The Bible says, "You are worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for You have created all things, and for Your pleasure they are and were created" (Revelation 4:11).

READERS' DIGEST SPECIAL: S.I.M.S (STEPPING INTO MAGGIE'S SHOE)

I cried and cried in my office, I didn't know where to start, my phone kept ringing but I was too overwhelmed to pick up. It was Christabel's number that was calling back. I deemed it fit to pick up. "I am sorry, I didn't know the extent of the damage I caused..."

"It's ok, God has written a better story out of this disaster of mine, that's why I called you back, I will be getting married next month. I met my husband at the hospital where I did my face reconstruction, he is a doctor. He helped me regain my confidence and love for God. God has dealt with me better than I deserve. Pastor Happy, nurture the ministry God has placed in your hands, you may have walked your way to that position but one thing I want you to know is God permitted it for His Glory, so don't disappoint God."

I spoke to Christabel's fiancé who was seated beside her. He was a soft spoken person and obviously a child of God, because it was perceivable in his words. I was free of my guilt. At this point, I didn't care if Chaba wanted to tell the world about it. I knew the scandal would be too much to bear. People would call me names, but I was ready for it. I was ready to face the consequences of my actions, but I said a short prayer... "Lord, I know you are the one who has the heart of the kings in your hands, you can turn it in whatever direction it pleases you, please touch Chaba's heart not to make this public, not for my sake alone but for the sake of the body of Christ. If this goes out, people will say a lot of things against Christianity. People will judge other Christians by my past action and generalize this... Please ABBA Father, Ancient of days who can go in time to wipe out our errors, go back in time and erase this error from Chaba's memory in Jesus' name."

The next morning, Apostle got a phone call from the church that he was urgently needed in the church, that Chaba was around and she was acting strange...

"Strange? What do you mean?" I asked Apostle after he dropped the call.

"I don't know, but I hope she is not talking about Christabel's case."

"Well, let me go with you, it's my matter, let me face it."

"The triplets?"

"I will take them with us, but drop them off at Kike's place."

Kike my friend was living close to the church. We went to the church after dropping the triplets off and just as we had been informed, Chaba was around but she was looking lost like she was trying hard to remember something...

"Apostle" she ran towards him.

"Chaba, what is wrong? What are you doing here? You didn't inform us you were coming!" Apostle said.

"Apostle, I knew I left South Africa to come to Nigeria for a purpose, like I have something I came here to do, but the moment I got to Nigeria, I have been trying so hard to remember what it is, but I can't... it's like someone just wiped it off my memory..." Chaba said.

From where I stood, I had tears flowing down my eyes, because I knew this was God at work. I became hysterical, laughing and crying at the same time, the Ancient of days had wiped my scandal from her memory. She couldn't remember anything... "Where is your wife? I don't think I have met her before, I have just seen her on screen."

Apostle was confused at this point, he felt Chaba was being dramatic...

"Chaba, stop this and tell me exactly why you came here."

"I am serious, I cannot remember."

"Are you saying you don't remember meeting Happy before?"

"No..."

I moved close to Chaba and offered her a handshake...

"Good afternoon Sis Chaba, it's a pleasure meeting you!"

"Oh my goodness, you are so beautiful in person, my goodness! Apostle you have a beautiful wife, you see I told you, I told you months back, you will find a good wife" Chaba said hugging me tightly.

Apostle was very speechless.

Chaba told us she was returning the next day as she couldn't remember her purpose of coming to Nigeria. Apostle told one of the pastors to lodge her in a hotel for the night. On our way back home after we picked up the triplets, Ray kept looking at me without saying a word, but when we got home, he came into my room and sat on my bed for the first time... "What did you do?" He asked looking at me "Chaba doesn't remember anything, she spoke like she only remembered my friendship with her before I even proposed marriage to her."

READERS' DIGEST SPECIAL: S.I.M.S (STEPPING INTO MAGGIE'S SHOE)

"Hmmm... but we are yet to find out what I did that made God to be displeased with me, which gave the devil the legal ground to keep me in this prison of sexual immorality."

"We can find out if we persist" I said. "How?" Apostle asked innocently.

"By praying just this one prayer point!"

"Which is?"

"Oh lord show me the secret behind the problem of my life and the way out in Jesus Christ's name". Apostle and I prayed this single prayer for about two hours nonstop and the result was amazing... When the Lord revealed the source of Apostle's problem, we knew it was only God that could have revealed it and it kept us in awe of God... What was the problem?

I had woken up from a deep revelation, after my prayer time with Ray. He had slept off on my bed for the first time since we got married. The triplets were asleep on their baby mattresses, beside us. I sat up to analyse the dream I had.

In my dream, I had seen myself searching for Ray all over the house, but couldn't find him. I walked into the living room and found the triplets watching cartoon with Apostle's Mother. In the revelation, Martha, the second of the set spoke and asked me...

"Mummy, are you looking for Daddy?" She asked

"Yes, have you seen him?" I asked

"Yes!" The trio replied giggling

"So where is he?"

"He is in the belly of the fish like Jonah" they said pointing to the Bible Animation they were watching on the screen. It was the cartoon version of Jonah in the belly of the shark...

"What?" I said very afraid "What is he doing in the belly of a shark?"

"He disobeyed God by going to the wrong place to preach, so God allowed a big shark to swallow him!" Mary said. Apostle's mother who I had only seen twice since we got married as she had returned to their hometown after her retirement spoke after the triplets had spoken... "I warned him and I told him not to leave the place where God wanted him to be, but out of greed he went elsewhere, see now the marine sharks have swallowed him up" his mother said lamenting.... It was at that point I woke up from my dream. "Holy Spirit, What is the interpretation of this dream?" I muttered to myself

"Yes sir, Yes sir, I will return" Apostle was saying from his dream weeping....I tapped him so he could wake up from his dream. On opening his eyes, he saw me by his side...

"Happy, you are here?" He was surprised thinking we were in his room

"Yes, I am sorry, you slept off and I didn't want to disturb you..."

"Happy, I saw Him again after 8 years!" He said

"Who?"

"The Holy Spirit, Happy, the prayer we prayed was highly effective. God has shown me what is wrong and what I must do to make things right, but it is highly difficult for me to do!"

"Does it have anything to do with you returning to somewhere?" I asked

He became startled and gave me a surprising look. "Yes, how did you know that?" He asked

"I just woke up from a revelation after our prayers...". "Tell me about it!" He pleaded

I narrated the dream to him and midway, he stood up, pacing around and crying....

"It is the same message. In my dream, I saw the Holy Spirit in form of an elderly man of God talking to me... I was complaining of how I was being tormented by the devil, in response to my cries, He told me to return back to my master just like Hagar returned back to Sarah. He told me, I was not meant to be a master, but a close servant to the master. He told me I was in problems because I left where I was planted. He said I was experiencing dryness and thirst because I left my master." Ray said "Do you know where this place is? I mean where God wants you to be?"

Apostle broke down in tears and between sobs, he said...

"I know, it is with "Baba Fire"...."

"Baba Fire, Who is Baba Fire?" I asked....

"I met Christ through Baba Fire during my Service year, after university"

The major problem is that many Christians will do Christian things around God, but not with God. We wear a morality-suit or a grace-suit or a cool-Christian-blogger-persona, as if any of these have anything to do with God Himself. Unless our faith is making us more joyful, nuanced, well-rounded, and willing to reach out to those unlike us, then it's not a faith worth having, and not the one Jesus died for.

To the Mountain Top

Mountain climbing requires great physical strength and endurance, as well as sharp mental alertness and fearlessness.

It can be a dangerous sport, it requires extremely sure-footing and exceptional lung capacity. There is the ever-marking danger of mountain lions, wolves and bears. But the beauty of the terrain, the exhilaration of feeling you are somehow climbing closer to God in His heavens, and the rush of finally reaching the top and beholding all the grandeur of God's creation now is worth all the dangers. David had this experience many times while he was running from Saul.

The physical demands of living in mountain strongholds prepared him for the kingship. Climbing spiritual mountains requires the same abilities needed for physical mountain climbing. The lazy, sick, out of shape or unappreciative cannot do it. If you cannot get out of bed in the morning to pray and cannot endure in prayer, you cannot climb mountains. If your lungs are not filled with the breath and fire of the Holy Spirit, you cannot climb mountains. If you are afraid of lurking demons, you cannot climb mountains. If you cannot appreciate the beauty and goodness of God around you where you are now, you won't appreciate a mountain top experience.

Quote of the Week:

A BAD ATTITUDE IS LIKE A FLAT TIRE YOU WON'T GO ANYWHERE UNTIL YOU CHANGE IT

I had a gentleman tell me one time that his business was very, very slow. It looked like he would go under. He owned a small manufacturing company with one main competitor in town, a national company that was bigger with more resources. With the economy down, it made it harder and harder for him to stay open. This man was flexible about what he should do next, but he really believed he was in the business God wanted him to be in. So, he kept praying, believing and hoping; and instead of considering his circumstances, he considered his God.

And just when he thought he was going to have to close down, his main competitor had a change in leadership and direction and decided to pull out of this market. Now he's breaking all kinds of records.

Today I want to encourage you. If there's something coming against you, consider your God. He has a way to meet every one of your needs. You may not be able to beat the competition in the natural, but God can simply remove the competition. He wants to give you His favour.

'Accepting the reality of our broken, flawed lives is the beginning of spirituality not because the spiritual life will remove our flaws but because we let go of seeking perfection and, instead, seek God, the one who is present in the tangledness of our lives.' (Mark Yaconelli)

A PRAYER FOR THE COMING WEEK

The name of the Lord is a Strong Tower, the righteous runneth into it and is saved.

Today and throughout this week the name of God will fight for you. He will preserved you from all evils. The Lord will calm every storm in your life and bring you to your desired haven.

As you set out daily, every situation will work in your favour and you will have reasons to praise the Lord in the Mighty name of Jesus. Amen.
