A Salute to Fathers

Today, Almighty God, as we observe Father's Day, I lift all the fathers of this world up to You with adoration and love. Fathers play an integral role in the lives of our children, as mentors, providers, caregivers and so much more and also provide a firm foundation on which our children stand. Thank You, Jehovah Jireh, for Your provision and for showering them with Your divine blessings. I pray that You would consecrate fathers and set them apart for Your purpose.

TODAY'S WORD JUST BEGIN.

Just after I received my fee structure from My University, I met my Dad and explained to him that I had the admission letter and he smiled. I told him however, "Baba, there is a problem. They need x amount. He held my hands, then slowly but reassuringly, said, "Just Begin, my son". To ensure his point, he went into his account and gave me virtually everything in it. I was touched. I added the token I had and my journey to the top began. Today, having reached the dream, I remember the words of my father: "Just Begin...." In everything you do, always remember, JUST BEGIN. Just begin, no matter how difficult it seems to be. It appeared to be difficult, but as time lapsed, I realised dad was right. At some point before my defence, I gave up. I still had a solid amount to pay and they wouldn't give me a chance for my final defence. Then came a very unlikely help. I had supported a gentleman to undertake a project evaluation two times in the year. I received his call cautiously asking me to meet him. He was carrying a brown envelop in his hand. He began, "Aliyu, you will forgive me if you find my action inappropriate. For two consecutive times you have given me a job without asking for a penny. This is very unusual with many people. I did not know how to approach you, but I am deep with gratitude. Please accept my small gift." I quickly peered into the envelope and saw they were two bundles, likely in hundreds. He confirmed that it was thousands. I couldn't believe it. The words of my father: "My son, just begin" came to mind. Don't worry how it will end, Just begin. If you are building a house, just begin. If you are planning to buy land, just begin. If you want to continue with your education, just begin. If you want to pay dowry, just begin. Nothing is more powerful than that advice. We just need to Have Faith and Begin. I have revised this philosophy. Whenever someone is doing something, I always encourage them to 'Have Faith and Just keep trying'. When things get thick, I always say, keep walking. No matter how slow, just keep Moving. If you can't Walk then Crawl. Just Keep Moving When things are intimidating, Ignore. *Persist and keep trying. Don't give up on life just because your challenges appear to be insurmountable. Do not be defeated before you begin. Whatever looks like a mountain will soon become an anthill... but only if you begin. Not long ago, someone asked me, "Aliyu, are we going to manage to build the office we want? My answer, "Let's just begin." I believe in the power of Faith and Action (Starting). No one Wins a race until they respond to the sound of the gun and begin. The secret lies in Beginning. Overtime, God has seen me through a number of projects because of this philosophy. I have parcels of land that I acquired by simply paying a token; and, overtime, these have multiplied. I persuade you this day never to allow yourself to be threatened by the size of your problem. The Journey of a Thousand Miles Starts with One Step. Begin in a small way to do something about it. How Do You Eat an Elephant? By Eating it One Bit at a Time If it is lack of money do something small to get something for yourself. If it is a marital issue, look for a way to solve it. In whatsoever you face, Just Begin. Even those with big debts can do something about it. Just begin by doing something little and it will shrink each day. I was not a millionaire, but sometime ago, I wanted to have a feeling of being one. I drew a plan of how to hold a million in my account, at least for a few days. After some months of beginning, I discovered it was possible. Three years and half of savings later, I got my first ever million. Even though I used it later on investments and expenses, it felt so good.

2020 is perfect vision: Fear Not. The Lord will perfect all that concerns you and me in Jesus' Mighty name. Amen

THE MANIFESTATION GIFTS VIII

TEXT: I Corinthians 14:1-20

MEMORY VERSE: "For he who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but God, for no one understands him, however, in the spirit he speaks mysteries." I Corinthians 14:2 NKJV

INTRODUCTION: In the last lesson, we started looking at the manifestation gift of tongues. Today, we shall consider how the gift operates.

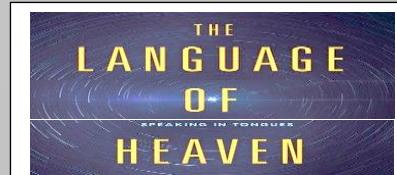

LESSON IV. THE GIFTS OF SPEECH (OR WORDS)

a) THE MANIFESTATIONS OF DIVERS OF TONGUES

iii. THE OPERATION OF DIVERS OF TONGUES

1. Tongues speaking may be in the form of prayer, praises, worship, and intercession. This gift can be expressed through singing and as well as speaking. Vs 15
2. Paul teaches that speaking in tongues must be followed with public interpretation (an utterance that will explain what was spoken or sung in the assembly). Vs 13-14
3. Tongues and interpretation have the same value as the gift of prophecy. They both can edify the Church collectively. I Cor. 14:5.
4. Two or three people may speak publicly in the congregation, turn by turn (one after the other), but all must be with interpretation. Without interpretation, they should keep silent in the church. I Cor. 14:27-28.
5. Praying, singing or worshiping in the spirit is the prayer, song or worship initiated by the Holy Spirit to either be in our understanding of another tongue. To pray in the Spirit does not mean to pray in an unknown tongue alone, it could also be in our understanding, only that it must be inspired by the Holy Spirit, not man or by any means. I Cor. 14:5-20 (vs 12-20), Eph. 6:18, Jude 20.

POINT: Some people equate the public use of tongue with Spirituality, but the mark of being spiritual is the manifestation of the fruit of the Spirit in our lives rather than Spiritual Gifts or speaking in tongues.

CLASS DISCUSSION

1. Explain how the gift of tongues operates
2. Does speaking in tongue make one a spiritual person? Explain
3. What is the mark of being a spiritual or mature person as a Christian?

CONCLUSION: We have seen the operation of the manifestation of the gifts of tongue today in our lesson. The next lesson will treat the evidence of the baptism with the Holy Spirit.

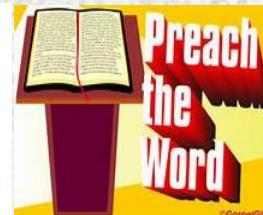

Thank You Father for this new day in You. A new day to worship You and to praise You. A new day to glorify You in all that we do and say. Thank You Father for bringing us through yesterday and thank You for the plans You have already put in place for our today. Help us Father. Heal us and deliver us. Make a way for us and strengthen us as only You can. Father today we ask that You open up doors in our lives that no man can close and we ask that You close doors in our lives that no man can open. We surrender all to You and we ask that You be at work in every part of our lives. We ask that You do in us, for us, and through us what only You can. We ask that You restore the joy of our salvation and that You work everything in our lives together for our good and Your glory in Jesus precious and mighty name. I pray that the Almighty God take care of all your needs, touch your life with joy, happiness and contentment, bless your heart with genuine love and faith, comfort your soul with inner peace and finally grant you good health now and forever. Amen

Don't let a bad day make you feel like you have a bad life- things will change for you

Every chain holding you back is broken, every trap is destroyed- in the name of Jesus. Lay hold on what belongs to you.

Today, beware of those things that make you feel discouraged. Recognize who and what they are and refuse to let them take up any space in your mind. Sometimes we let the thoughts of discouragement linger for too long in our minds without speaking back to those thoughts. You have to tell that discouragement your breakthrough is on its way! That your best days are before you! That no weapon formed against you will ever prosper! Never stop encouraging yourself. Be blessed and be encouraged!

You have the power to step up to the cross and nail those things, that have been weighing you down, pulling you under, stealing your joy. You have the power to bring them all to His feet and say "I can't do this. I can't carry these things, it's too heavy. It's too great. Only you can fix this." You were never meant to carry these things, and He stands ready and willing with open arms to take them. But you must decide to surrender them.

2020 is perfect vision. May our sight focus on the Lord and living according to His perfect vision for us.

Go to the Ant

If you've ever battled ants in your kitchen, you might describe them as stubborn. But to someone struggling to stay on course, these tiny creatures seem determined, or even inspiring.

In fact, ants have several characteristics people admire, including preparation, cooperation, perseverance, diligence, and unity.

Ants are but one example of how much we can learn from the world God created—it contains bountiful evidence of His character and values.

Knowing this, Jesus directed His followers' attention to the birds so that they might consider the folly of anxiety (Matt. 6:25-26).

Birds do not reap or gather grain but instead assume their food will be supplied as it always has been. This observation of nature demonstrates that the Lord who provides for birds can be trusted to meet His people's needs as well.

While godly wisdom is rooted in Scripture and sought through prayer, we shouldn't overlook the lessons unfolding right outside the front door.

Ask God for eyes to see His principles in the natural world. Then take every chance to grow in understanding, both inside and outside your house.

disciples. Jesus lay down and fell asleep. While he was sleeping a great storm arose, so that the ship was covered with waves. The disciples were filled with fear. They woke Jesus saying, "Lord, save us!"

Jesus spoke to the wind and the sea saying, "Peace be still." Immediately the wind and the sea became calm. The disciples marvelled and said, "What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey Him!" (Matthew 8:27).

Jesus had power over evil spirits. The evil spirits recognized that He was the Son of God, and, when He commanded, they obeyed Him.

Jesus had power to heal all sicknesses and diseases. He caused the lame to walk again. He restored sight to the blind.

Jesus had power over death itself. Because He is God, He had the power to do what no man can do—He raised three people from the dead.

One of these was His friend, Lazarus, the brother of Mary and Martha, who lived in Bethany. One day Jesus received an urgent message from Mary and Martha telling Him that Lazarus was sick.

dead for four days. Mary and Martha were heartbroken. Martha said, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died."

Jesus said, "Your brother shall live again...I am the resurrection and the life: he that believes in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live" (John 11:23, 25).

At the tomb, Jesus cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come forth!" Lazarus came walking out of the tomb in his grave clothes.

TURN BACK TO GOD

How To Make Our Life A Blessing For Others

Many people observe spiritual life as one filled with tears and sorrows. They think it is a matter of saving our souls somehow, moving stealthily and struggling towards perfection.

We should not be afraid. Our God is mindful of us. He is aware of the struggles that we go through in our life. He knows our efforts to succeed in spiritual life. God looks so tenderly in to our needs, failures and shortcomings. Even though you may fall, he will let you wake up by giving you a helping hand. For, our Lord wants and deeply desires our souls to be joyful.

God wants our life to be prosperous and fruitful

It is not merely the good state of the soul that He desires. God wants our life to be prosperous and fruitful in all the realms of life. If you are a farmer, God wants you to live for Him in that profession. It is also His wish that your agricultural land produce in abundance to make you economically stable.

Do not give up if your land does not produce well. Ask and pray to your Almighty God to bless your possession. Toil with your Lord. He will bless you abundantly. Isaac could harvest plentifully in the barren land of Garar when he worked hard with the Lord.

Do not be afraid of the painful and challenging life situations that you go through. Your God is ready to bless you. He promised Abraham that 'You will be a blessing' (Gen. 12:2). It means that Abraham is an instrument in the hands of the Lord to bless the land and nation. In order to be a blessing in your family, office, school, profession... entrust all who trouble you into the hands of the Lord and pray for them.

Promise of the Word of God

The Word of God promises in Ps. 128:2-5 reveal an order of blessings. First you are blessed, then your family and nation. Now gaze at the face of the Lord who promised to bless you, lifting your eyes from the life situations clouded with despair. Repeat the promises that He has given you. Once you pray using the Word of God, Satan who pushes you back will run away with fear. You will be filled with God's light and joy.

I pray a lot, but nothing happens?

Now you may think that you pray very much but the life situations remain unchanged. What should be the reason? There is no change for God's Word and His promises. They should not be doubted. Reasons could vary in this case.

God has chosen a specific time to bless each one. It depends on our eagerness and success in using this specific time plan to be blessed in life. For example, an old man would have enough leisure time. His blessing depends on the way he uses the time given for him. He can never enjoy life, if he complains and murmurs every time. Thus he causes pain to himself and others. Instead if he uses this free time praying for his family, children and grandchildren, it would make the difference. Suppose an officer is very punctual in his office, anyone who approaches him happily meets his/her needs. People would like to approach him for help. He is a blessing and cause of joy in other's life. Instead if he causes trouble in the life of others making them come again and again for a single need... when people realize that it is useless to approach him... He is a curse for others and the nation.

Each human being is called to bear fruit

Make an examination of conscience and learn where you stand. As a fruitful tree or a block to others happiness? In order to be fruitful in life, we should live for God. One who works hard for himself/herself cannot find true satisfaction in life. If we deny ourselves and thirst for the kingdom of God, real joy and happiness will enshroud our life. We are not sure whether we will be alive for the next moment. What is given to us is this moment. Use it carefully and with great love. Be a people builder.

How was it that the thief on the right side of the Lord, could obtain salvation? He used his opportunity well. He had a little time, but it made difference in his life.

There may be many temptations calling you back. Unless you kill them, they will kill you. Say 'Amen' to the Lord at the proper time.

Father's Day Special.

Parenting.

A father's influence goes to the fourth generation after him. Whitney Houston's parents Emily and John Houston divorced when she was at kindergarten. Together with her lover, Bobby Brown, Whitney smoked crack in the presence of their 5 year old daughter, Bobbi Kristina. At 22, Bobbi died of drug abuse...her mother Whitney died at 48 on similar grounds. Great careers and more importantly, great lives lost due to weak fatherhood.

💡 While there is little you can do about your ancestors, there is something that you can do about your descendants. One thing that prevents a man from being a good father is that he hasn't completed being a boy. To be in your children's' memory tomorrow, you have to be in their lives' today. Having children doesn't make you a father. Raising them does.

💡 There are many of us who were raised up in unstable families but we don't have to pass it on to our children. We don't have to fight in the presence of our children. We can choose to shield their emotions from our disputes as adults. To a large extent, you are a product of your early relationships

💡 Unstable parents create insecure children. Stable parents raise stable children. Children need affection (hugs,), attention (listening) and affirmation (positive words), every day. When a man loves his wife, it creates security and stability. The best gift a father can give his children is to love their mother. Children learn how to handle feelings, loses, failure and conflicts at home.

💡 Regrettably, parenting can neither be delegated nor suspended for a while as we work for the ring of fame and fortune. The growth of children is irreversible. Like a young tree, it takes the bends directed by the gardener, so is the life of a child. You can't shape it in adulthood; you can't pick it from where you left after you reach the top in your career pursuits. It's always easier to model young boys than to rehabilitate grown up men.

💡 If you invest in your child, you don't have to invest for your child. Children require presence not presents. No amount of gifts and meeting financial obligations can replace your personal presence. Any written will

An elderly man went to a hospital for his routine medical check-up. When his Blood Pressure was taken, it was a little lower than 100/70. The doctor on duty who was awestruck picked up the result and looked at it over and over again for about 10 minutes, and said, "Sir, this is unbelievable! You have an incredible BP. Does it mean you don't go through any stress at all? What's the secret?"

The man smiled and said, "This has been your colleagues' question overtime. I have always told them that it was a gift from God, which is correct in actual sense. But let me tell you what has been making that gift work.

I can't wait to know the secret, the doctor interjected.

"When I was young, my father taught me that if I want to overcome negative S, I must embrace two positive S.

The doctor who was eager to know those S interrupted him again. What are the negative and positive S, Sir?

"The negative S includes: stress, sickness, sorrow, suffering, etc. My dad said, if I could manage stress, I won't have much health challenge. I later discovered he was telling me the truth as I embraced his two positive S. The man paused.

I hope no problem, Sir? The doctor asked.

"No problem, doctor. I remembered my glorious dad of a blessed memory. He was a great man, doctor.

"The positive S includes: Smile and Silence. Smile can solve problem and Silence can avoid problems. To achieve this, you must:

"Select the right people to travel with you in your journey of life at all times and make your life sweeter.

"On deity, choose the Almighty God. Thereafter, if you fail to achieve your dreams, change your ways, not your God. The trees change their leaves and not their roots.

"Stop looking sideways when you are emotionally distracted. You will never reach your destination if you stop and throw stones at every dog that barks.

"Sayings of people should not work you up. Even when haters see you walking on water they will say it's because you can't swim. If you like, dance on the water, they will accuse you of raising dust.

"Start to live a quiet life; mind your own business; and work with your own hands.

MARRIAGE.....

He was having his evening beverage. That's when she joined him.

"Hi there handsome, you're looking good. So fine I can eat you up" she said sitting down.

"I thought we agreed to keep away from each other? I am a married man" he told her.

"Come on. I won't bite. You can't resist me, no man can" she said.

"I am a married man" he told her.

"Fight all you want, but soon I will have you. I am way better than your wife" she told him.

"You are nothing compared to my wife" he told her off.

"Really? All this body. All these curves. All these sweetness. I bet your wife is not as good in bed as I am" she told him unbuttoning the top button of her blouse to reveal her cleavage, then lifting up her skirt, just a bit.

"If I was a lustful and unfaithful man, all that would move me. But I am too grown to be enticed by what you're showing off. I am a grown man, you think all that consumes my mind is sex? And for your information, my wife is actually great in bed" he told her.

"How will you know unless you do me? Try me tonight. Let's drive in your black car to a romantic hotel, I promise you a night you will never forget" she told him.

"You know what you are? You are lazy? A lazy woman" he told her, then took a sip of his beverage.

"How dare you call me lazy?! I am a high flying educated woman. Any man would give anything to have me" she said.

"Fair enough. But would you give anything to make a man?" He asked.

"What do you mean?" She questioned.

"You look at me and find me attractive. Yet you disrespect the woman behind who I am, you want me to cheat on my wife, the woman behind my attractiveness" said he.

He drank a sip and continued, "My wife is responsible for the man in me that you want today. When I had little, my wife believed in me. These suits you see me wearing, are my wife's idea. I ask for her advice on what to wear. My success has come to pass because she prays for me and puts up with my demanding work hours. She corrects me and moulds me and that has moulded my character. The Range Rover you see me outside driving that you fancy, I bought that with my wife. She and I invested to buy our house. I look attractive and pleasant, because she treats me well and gives me peace. And now you want to have the man that she made out of me and dishonour her? You want to have the man that she has built for years? You are lazy?"

Silence.

"I see you turning down the single men who want you and yet you want me, a man that another woman has made? No, it doesn't work like that. Find your own single man, believe in him, pray for him, support him, nurture him and mould him to be the attractive man you want him to be. You women have a nurturing and helping gift. Activate your gift.

My wife has been busy building me and I will not leave her for a woman who has nothing to offer, but her sexiness.

So if you may excuse me, I need to drive home and take my wife on a date. She deserves the best" he said as he stood up and drank a last sip.

He reached in his wallet and placed K200 on the table.

"Have yourself a drink as you think about your life and how you'll stop being lazy and find a single man you can build. My generous wife and I have paid for the drink" he said.

He walked away as she looked on; her lower jaw dropping in shock, "I thought that this world was void of principled men, I just met one," the diva seasoned as she sobered up, nodding her head.

"This guy just schooled me. In 20 minutes this smart guy has taught me the most valuable lesson which I've never found in any one of the three prestigious Universities I've attended. *How to find, invest in and make my own husband*I need to find my own husband" she thought to herself as the gentleman sped off in his waiting Range Rover.

LAST WORD

Being a good father can easily go unnoticed, yet it is one of the most valuable assets to a family. Here's to celebrating you today and every other day of the year.

The time of Jubilee is the period of freedom from captivity, indebtedness and restoration. For those that are in spiritual slavery or servitude, those oppressed, poor, sick and generally needy persons including the unsaved, this month is their month of freedom.

The mind of God is that they have borne this burden long enough and therefore deserve rest from all their burdens.

Many people have come under heavy spiritual bondage over the years without having any inkling what might have been happening in their lives. All they know is that they do their best to work hard in every area of their lives, but never see their efforts translate into success. This therefore, elongates the tenure of suffering. Therefore, no matter the bondage and captivity that had characterized your life over the years, by the reason of God's divine program of jubilation, the chain of captivity over your life shall be broken and shattered and you shall be released.

You must understand the spiritual dimension of this month as it comes to an end; hence, the need to take advantage of the opportunity it presents to reconcile yourself with God Almighty through His Son Jesus Christ.
