1st November 2020

PSALM 5: For You, O LORD, will bless the righteous. With favour you will surround him as with a shield.

2020 is perfect vision: Fear Not. The Lord will perfect all that concerns you and me in Jesus' Mighty name. Amen

TODAY'S REFLECTION

Yahweh, we bless Your holy, matchless name this morning, exalting You above all things seen and unseen. In Your wisdom, You move the pieces of our lives into position, redirecting us to Your chosen path when we veer off course. When we look to You for answers, You reveal deep secrets that set us up for great feats that will glorify Your name. Your name brings kings and rulers to their knees and destroys the plans of the enemy. Your power and might cannot be matched and this is why we're rejoicing as we go to Your sanctuary. Please wash us clean in preparation for the week ahead, and bestow on us the spirit of forgiveness towards others.

- We pray that we shall never find a reason to stop praising You.
- We summon the spirit of praise to restore our vision and focus on Your power and might.
- Make our love for You the fuel we need to survive.
- Holy Spirit, anoint every church with the power of praise today for the manifestation of Your presence, in the mighty name of Jesus Christ!

Father, we walk into our high places as we honour You, giving thanks for Your past, present and future works in our lives. May our children learn, through us,

Please mother learn from this mistake,

WOMEN, PLEASE BE CAREFUL.....

A baby girl has passed away, due to plaited hair. The doctor said the veins were over pulled. The girl complained of headache but the mother ignored her. She only gave her pain relief drugs and asked her to go and sleep. She cried till she slept off but passed out from there.

Fashion is good but shouldn't be at the expense of life. Please let's always avoid carelessness.

It's a beautiful Sunday morning and a great opportunity to thank the Lord for reminding us of just how blessed we are.

FAITH CLINIC

Obed-Edom had no fame, had no special place, and had no identity until THE ARK was placed in his house for 3 months. He moved from a NOBODY to become a NATIONAL ICON. He had no address and suddenly he became SOUGHT AFTER. Everybody was looking for the address of who God had blessed suddenly and exceedingly. This is what your testimony will be for the remaining days of this year and beyond. This morning, GOD will locate you and release the oil of distinction and divine favour that will distinguish you and take you far above all your limitations in Jesus Wonderful

Happy Sunday!

I will enter his gates with Thanksgiving in my heart, I will enter his courts with praise. I will say this is the day that the Lord has made, I will rejoice for he has made me glad!

SUNDAY SCHOOL THE MINISTERIAL GIFTS IV

Text: Acts 8:1-13

MEMORY VERSE: "And the next day, we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Caesarea: and we entered into the house of Philip the Evangelist, which was one of the seven; and abode with him." Acts 21:8

INTRODUCTION: In the last lesson, we concluded the discussion on the ministry of the Prophet. Today, we shall examine the ministries of Evangelist and Shepherd (Pastor).

LESSON

EXPLANATION ON EACH OF THE MINISTERIAL GIFT

1. EVANGELIST (Outside)

a. Definition

- i. An Evangelist is a bearer (bringer) of good tidings. He has the special ability and grace to present the gospel (good news) of Jesus Christ with clarity and power. While all ministers can do the work of an evangelist, not all are Evangelists.

b. His Character

- i. He has a true passion for the perishing souls, longing and traveling in birth for them. His joy is to bring sinners to Jesus Christ.

c. The Signs that follow an Evangelist.

- i. Signs, wonders and miracles do confirm his message and follow him. Acts 8:5-7

d. His desires compared with Other Ministries

- i. His desire is to see his converts grown. So, he uses other ministries in the church to see his converts grown. He uses the oversight of the Elders.
- ii. Unlike the Apostles, he does not usually evangelize across cultural lines.
- iii. Unlike the Prophets, he does not thunder judgement, but majors more on the grace of God.
- iv. Unlike the Teachers and Shepherds busy ministering the word to the sheep in the Church, his special concern is for the unsaved souls who are there outside in the world. His work is outside.
- v. All Christians are witnesses and soul winners but no all Christians are Evangelists

e. Biblical examples of Evangelist

- i. Jesus Christ our Lord. Luke 4:18-19
- ii. Philip the Evangelist. Acts 8:1-40, 21:8

2. SHEPHERDS (Inside)

a. Definition

- i. The word "Pastor" used in Ephesians 4:11 is from the Greek word "Poimen" which literally means "Shepherd." He is therefore one who feeds, tends, keeps, leads and cares for God's sheep.

b. His Character

- i. He has great love for the sheep. He guides the love of God.

c. His Work

- i. The work of the Shepherd is inside the assembly among the Saints.
- ii. His work is summed up in five (5) words: seeking, watching (or protecting), caring, correcting and leading the flock of God.
- iii. He is specially equipped with wisdom and tenderness to care for the needs of the sheep.
- iv. He gives personal ministry of comfort in time of affliction.
- v. He gives wise counsel during the period of trials and problems by applying the scriptures as needed in each individual case.
- vi. Protecting the sheep from hostile influences. (I Samuel 17:14-17)
- vii. Intercessory prayer for each one in his care, he carries the sheep in his heart.
- viii. His teachings relate to survival, protection and care. John 10, Psalms 23, Ezek. 34:1-6, Zech. 10:2.
- ix. Visitation and ministry to individuals, he is seldom seen on the pulpit.

NOTE: The work of the Elders and Shepherds (Pastors) is similar: Elders shepherd the flock and also serve as the administrators of the Church, taking the oversight thereof. The Shepherds (Pastors) concentrate on maturing ministry to the sheep and operate under the oversight of the Elders. Acts 20:28-32, I Peter 5:1-5.

CLASS DISCUSSION

1. Who is an Evangelist?
2. What is the desire of an Evangelist compared with other fourfold ministry?
3. Define who a Shepherd is and his work

CONCLUSION: The two-fold role of the Evangelist in the body of Christ is to travel and preach the gospel of Jesus Christ in places that have not heard of God's plan of salvation and to instruct and train others in his Local Church how to evangelize to the lost. The Shepherds are to seek, watch, care, correct and lead the sheep.

Almighty father in heaven, I worship and thank you for your grace, mercy, visible and invisible blessings. Oh Lord, you have begun a good work in my life; you are protecting and providing for me; you are blessing and healing me. I thank you because you will bring your works to completion in my life. This new week Lord, empower me by your Holy Spirit and brood upon my thoughts, words and actions. Guide my character and attitude to bring glory to your name before the world. You visit the earth and cause it to overflow; you greatly enrich it with thy stream full of water, so that its grain will yield for mankind. Therefore lord, visit me and enrich my life and my family with your wisdom and power; that we may yield prosperously for your good, in the name of Jesus Christ. I come against every evil plan against my life and my family this week and all through the remaining part of this year. I decree that we shall not die but live to declare the goodness of God in the land of the living. We shall labour and eat of its fruits; we shall build and live peacefully in our home under the shadow of the Almighty, in Jesus name. Father. May my lamp

Today,
The land you walk
Will produce BLESSINGS;
The sky above you
Will release FAVOUR;
And the breeze
Around you
Will blow PEACE.

DEFEATING DISCOURAGEMENT

Nehemiah 2:11-20

No matter what our position in life may be, we all at times encounter disappointment—and that can quickly lead to discouragement.

Disappointment is simply an emotional response to a failed expectation or hope, whether because plans went awry or someone didn't measure up.

But discouragement is a state of mind in which we become faint-hearted and lose confidence in God, ourselves, or others.

When Nehemiah arrived in Jerusalem, its inhabitants were discouraged—the city wall had been destroyed, leaving them vulnerable to their enemies, and there were significant hindrances to rebuilding. But he encouraged them to start, explaining that the Lord had shown him favour by moving the Persian king's heart to approve the project.

Nehemiah's confidence in God replaced the people's despair and lethargy with the hope of success and motivation to work diligently.

you've got enemies? good, that means you stood up for something in your life.

We have a choice: Either settle into disappointment and accept our discouragement or—like Nehemiah—focus on the Lord, who is greater than any problem facing us.

Although obstacles and disappointments may remain, God's Word shifts our hope to His promises, good purposes, proven faithfulness, and sufficiency (Rom. 15:4).

With His strength, we can persevere.

A visiting Pastor recently shared the story about a young woman who died. He was away ministering somewhere at the time. When he returned, she had already been dead for four days. She had already been embalmed, he said he refused to accept death. She was too young to die. He went to the corpse, forced her mouth open, poured anointing oil in and began to breathe into her mouth. Everyone around thought he was crazy. The woman came back to life. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever. The Bible is not a collection of touching stories. It was real life. God is just looking for violent people who will take it by force in this generation. No more fear, laziness and unbelief! That is why Jesus was weeping when Lazarus died, because His people were so full of unbelief. Get violent and breathe life back into

READERS' DIGEST.

When you die, what happens next? Don't worry, don't be concerned over your body because it's the first thing people will take care of. They will do what is required, of course, your name would have been changed to " The Corpse " .

They will

- 1 - Take you out of the comfort of your expensive home.
- 2 - Buy you new white clothes
- 3 - Wash your body
- 4 - Take you to your new place of stay (the grave, where equality of mankind is assured)
- 5 - Many will come to bid farewell at your funeral - in fact, many will cancel work for the sake of your burial, even though most of them didn't know you while you were alive.
- 6 - Your belongings will be gotten rid of:
 - Your cars
 - Your cheque books
 - Your bags
 - Your shoes
 - Your clothes
 - Your job: Someone else will take your position (Whether in the circular world or in the church)
 - Your wealth will go to inheritors or opportunists
 - Whereas you will remain to be questioned about every minor and major deed.

Mourners will congregate and there will be 3 types of mourners over you

- * 1- The people who knew you only at face value will say 'poor man'
- * 2- Your friends will grieve for hours or days but then return to laughter
- * 3- The deep grief at your household will last for a week, two weeks, a month, 2-months or even a year; and thereafter they will add you to their memories. And so your story amidst the people ended while your story with the reality begins: "Eternity". Where have you prepared to spend it? And that is the life after death

Indeed, the following things will leave you:-

- * - Beauty
- * - Wealth
- * - Health
- * - Children
- * - Connections and influence
- * - The mansions
- * - Your spouse, in fact, among those who come to mourn will be those eyeing to take over. (Funny but true)

The Question is...

What have you prepared that will show or speak for you in Eternity or hereafter?

This reality needs to be thought over

A man went to a rich man's house, found him seated in the company of his friends. He greeted the big man and in tears, said: "Sir, I am a poor man. I ate last yesterday afternoon and have had nothing to eat again since then. I have been looking for any kind of job without luck. My wife has delivered a baby boy at home last night and she too has eaten nothing, preventing her breast milk from flowing. The baby has since been crying out of hunger. I came to you to plead for assistance. I do not need money, just foodstuff, even that, no need to give me directly. I prefer your driver accompany me, deliver the items directly to my family and see things for himself."

The rich man thought deeply, then called his driver and said: "Here, take this N50, 000 and a bag of rice. Take this man to his house. If he shows you a woman with a new-born baby, give him the money and the rice. If, for any reason you don't see them, return the gifts to me." The driver took the man in his car and they drove into the city. They reached a house and the man entered, then came out and said that the nursing mother was not in. The driver said the husband should phone her to come back to enable him fulfil his duty. The man said she had no phone. The driver said he would then wait till she returned.

When the man noticed the driver was bent on doing as his boss ordered, he looked at him straight in the eye and said: "I have a proposal for you. Forget about woman or no woman. Take the rice and give me the money." But the driver refused. The man then said: "Ok, let's do it this way. Take the rice and let us share the money". Still the driver refused. The man finally asked him: "How much do you really want?" The driver said: "I want nothing other than either to see the woman and hand over the items to you, or I return all to my master". The man looked at him angrily, hissed and simply walked away. The driver returned home with the items and told the rich man all that had happened.

Story continues with another setting.....

When the man walked away, the driver stopped at a roadside shop and told the owner he needed cash urgently, so he would sell his N20, 000 bag of rice for N15, 000. The shop owner quickly paid and offloaded the rice. The driver went home and informed his master that he had carried out the assignment. His master asked him if the poor man's story was true and he said he really saw the nursing mother. The master then said: "Good. Now take me to the family to enable me assist them more properly".

The driver took the rich man towards the city, but while the car a/c was on, the master noticed the driver was sweating profusely, his hand was shaking on the steering, and his speech was incoherent. The master ordered him to park and asked what the problem was. Seeing there was no point lying, the driver confessed to the other man's and his own guilt. He handed over the N50, 000 and the N15, 000 for the rice and begged for mercy. He then drove them back home.

The rich man told his friends what happened and said: "This is the problem with our society. Someone will seek your help. Unknown to you, he is a fraudster. If you help him, he has cheated you and will continue. If you don't, you feel guilty because you are not sure. Society will also say you are merciless. Similarly, someone will ask for a job, like this driver. If you reject him, you feel you are fuelling social problems. If you employ him, he cheats you. What kind of society is this? How can this problem be solved? Who can correct this anomaly?"

Neither the rich man nor his friends could answer the questions because honesty has become a rare commodity in our society.

THE FOUNTAIN YOUTHS

OVERCOMERS

I am "in Christ"

We have already seen how God likes to make things new. God not only put me in Christ, but He made me a new person in Christ.

The Bible says,

"Therefore if any man [anyone] is in Christ, he is a new creation [a new person]: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new" (2 Corinthians 5:17).

In CHRIST

Here are some verses that tell of my new position in Christ:

"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ." Ephesians 1:3

"...we are in Him that is true, even in His Son Jesus Christ." 1 John 5:20

"In Whom [in Christ] we have redemption through His blood..." Ephesians 1:7

"To the praise of the glory of His grace, wherein He has made us accepted in the beloved [in Christ]." Ephesians 1:6

"For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works..." Ephesians 2:10

"There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus..." Romans 8:1

In CHRIST

I am forgiven.

Because I am in Christ, God has forgiven me of every sin—past, present and future. The Bible says, "In whom [in Christ] we have redemption through His blood, even the forgiveness of sins" (Colossians 1:14).

In CHRIST

I am made near to God.

As a sinner, I was separated from God and could not come into His presence. But now in Christ Jesus, I can come boldly into God's presence because the blood of His Son Jesus Christ has cleansed me from all sin.

The Bible says, "But now in Christ Jesus you who sometimes were far off are made near by the blood of Christ" (Ephesians 2:13).

In CHRIST

I am redeemed.

To redeem something means to pay a price to get it back. Because of Adam's disobedience, we were "stolen" from God by Satan. But Christ has redeemed us. He has "bought us back."

Now we belong to Him, the One who redeemed us. The Bible says, "In whom [in Christ] we have redemption through His blood..." (Ephesians 1:7).

Christ had to pay a great price to redeem us. What was the price He paid for us? The price was His precious blood. He died on the cross to get us back. The Bible says, "...you were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold...but with the precious blood of Christ..." (1 Peter 1:18-19).

In CHRIST

I am accepted.

We all like to be accepted by our friends and others, but being accepted by God is the most important acceptance of all.

TURN BACK TO GOD

THE COVENANT OF PROSPERITY.

Every child of God is a seed of Abraham and is ordained to be an heir of the blessings upon Abraham. Therefore, God is still in the business of turning people into financial giants because according to the Bible, we have access in Christ, to whatever God said to Abraham.

As it is written: "And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise."

Galatians 3:29.

God's prosperity plan has no respect for prayer because it is a covenant and not a promise. It is the revelation of the covenant of prosperity from the Scriptures that puts us in command of financial fortune. This is because God's Word is the highway to our inheritances and we must be committed to finding what it takes to access it. For instance, there are several covenant demands we must fulfil for our prosperity to materialise.

The anchor law of the covenant of prosperity is giving. This is because only givers qualify for God's blessings. According to the Scriptures, it is the giving law that launches men into realms of financial fortune because our seeds entitle us to harvests (Genesis 8:22) (Job 22:21-27).

Therefore, giving is the gateway to supernatural supplies. (Read Ps. 112:9). He brought wealth into his house by dispersing his resources and giving to the poor. That's why his generation is blessed.

When we give to the point that the law becomes operational in our lives, according to scriptural principles, it launches us into realms of financial fortune.

It is not the Word we find that matters but what we do with it. We discover from the Scriptures that every divine supply answers to man's obedience. Mary said, "Whatever He saith unto you, do it" [John 2:3]. They were to pay taxes in Matthew 17:27, and Jesus told Peter to go to the sea, cast a hook and open the mouth of the first fish he would catch to get the money required to pay the tax collector.

Now, think of what Job the wealthiest man of his time said, "As I was in the days of my youth, when the secret of God was upon my tabernacle..." What was that secret? He was eyes to the blind and feet to the lame. The cause that he knew not, he searched out. That was the secret behind the wealth and the supplies that Job enjoyed [Job 29:2-18].

It was not his business expertise that brought

(I found this story very touching, so I decided to share it. May we be caring friends and neighbours. May we have friends and neighbours who truly care for us.)

How often do you check on your neighbours? This is very important as it could save a life. This story will make you cry because it is a true story that took place in one of the neighbourhoods in Sanaa, the capital city of war-torn Yemen.

There was a man who lived in a two-room house with his wife and three children. Before the war he was gainfully employed, working on a daily paid job with stable conditions of service. His family lived relatively well. But when war broke out in Yemen, it created a lot of difficulties and problems that changed everything for this family.

The man lost his job as his employers went under. He could no longer provide for his family but he went out daily with the hope of finding work to support his family. Most days he returned empty handed. So, most nights his pregnant wife and kids went to bed hungry. One night, he came back and found his wife in severe labour pain. He rushed her to the Emergency Room at Al-Khazzan Hospital in Sanaa. But before leaving the house for the hospital, since it was late at night and he did not want to disturb the neighbours, he locked the children in from the outside as they slept peacefully.

At the hospital, the doctors, after examining his wife, informed him that his wife needed immediate Caesarean Section if mother and baby are to be saved. The complication was very bad. He was told to pay fifty thousand Yemeni Rials (about 40 US dollars) to the accounts office. He did not have the money, so he begged the Medical Director to authorize the operation to save his wife and baby, promising to go raise the money and pay afterwards. The Director agreed, on compassionate grounds, to perform the C-Section, but insisted that the mother and baby would not be released afterwards until he paid the money. He accepted the terms and so the operation was authorized.

The man left the hospital to search for money, not knowing from who, or where he will get such huge amount of money. The country was in deep straits and everyone, including the high and mighty, was in a bad shape financially. Besides he did not know or have access to many rich people. His social circle was small and mainly plebs. His mind was preoccupied with his bad state and how he could raise money to offset the hospital bill so much so that he was completely distracted and so failed to pay attention as he crossed a busy road. Right at that moment, a young man driving a car reckless knocked him down, killing him instantly. The driver sped off to evade justice. Some passers-by gathered and, not knowing who he was and who to contact about the accident, took the body to the morgue at Kuwait Hospital. The hospital also did not know who he was or who to contact and, therefore, tagged the body as "unknown".

After seven days at Al-Khazzan Hospital, the Director of the hospital concluded that the man had absconded, abandoning the woman and her child. He told the woman that her husband was a cheat. Not knowing why her husband did not return, the wife could not defend him. The woman wept as she expressed the hope that her husband would show up and pay up.

The story began to spread about a man who brought his wife to the hospital and abandoned her, leaving a huge bill unpaid. People whispered among themselves how irresponsible the man was. At the same time, the story of a man who was crushed to death by a hit-and-run driver as he came out of the hospital and attempted to cross the road, began to emerge.

Could the death man be the one who was thought to have absconded?

The hospital authorities investigated and established that the time of the accident tallied with the time the woman's husband stepped out of the hospital. So, the Director took the woman to go and do an identification check. The dead man was indeed her missing husband. The woman was deeply shocked and completely devastated. The load was too heavy to bear. People spoke of how unfortunate she was.

Meanwhile, nobody had heard anything about the children since their father locked them in and rushed their mother to the hospital exactly a week ago. Neighbours had not seen them and nobody bothered to check on them. The house stood silent, with no sound or movement.

Back in the hospital, the woman was discharged and released unconditionally. The hospital authorities were so generous that they even gave her some medical and food supplies and asked the ambulance crew to take her home. When they got to the house, the door was still locked. The ambulance crew helped her to break the door.

LAST WORD

The King of Glory has given you power and authority over all forces of darkness, so why are you not walking in it? Why do you keep giving your money to wrong places to look for answers? Why your dependence on what man can do for you?

When you do that you are walking like a child in diapers instead of like a king in royal robes.

PRAYER POINTS

1. I refuse to shed tears this month in Jesus' Name.
2. I terminate all pain, hardship, struggle and grief right now in Jesus' Name.
3. Lord God, by Your power, tear apart any situation that is formulating to make me cry.
4. I command every dark cloud hovering over my family to disintegrate by fire.
5. Spirit of rejection your time is up; I will not carry you anymore. Die out of my life.
6. Satanic postmasters carrying evil news, stay far from my house in Jesus' Name.
7. Holy Ghost fire, fall and torment all my oppressors in the Name of Jesus.
8. I put an end to every hurtful situation that has been controlling my mind and emotions.
9. Lord God, make anyone who wants me to weep, weep.
10. Every arrow of pain to my heart; reverse and pierce sender.
11. Enemies of my good news; be terminated now by fire.
12. Whatever makes people to come close and suddenly drop out of my life; be destroyed today by fire.
13. Lord Jesus, convert my

The Bible tells us that the gate that leads to destruction is wide and broad and that many are following that path. In other words, many people are headed on the pathway to hell. While a few people knowingly choose this path, a vast majority of people are headed to hell unknowingly and may even think they are heaven bound.

So many so called 'Christians' that have been deceived with a diluted version of the gospel will at the end of their lives be shocked when they hear the words 'depart for I know you not'. It now behoves us to make sure that others that are being deceived in numerous places of error and the whole world are exposed to the truth.

You should not be satisfied being the only one that is genuinely saved in your family, at work or your community. You should be determined to rescue as many souls as you can. You are now an ambassador of Christ and it is your duty to recruit more souls into the kingdom.

As this pandemic rages, a wide door of opportunity has been opened unto us to share the good news as there has been an awakening of people's consciousness to God now than ever before. We can preach a God that saves, heals, provides and protects to a people that are looking for solutions in the midst of this crisis. You have the answer that they are looking for.

Are you a willing labourer in the kingdom of God? Hell is a terrible place that nobody should end up in. Just as we have been graciously saved from the devil's captivity, we should also actively seek to save those that are still captive.

A PRAYER FOR THE COMING WEEK

This week and beyond, May the Lord who determines time and season restore your lost glory and blessings now. May the Lord also put an end to the operation of destiny robbers in your life and family in Jesus Christ most peerless name, amen.

Happy Sunday and prosperous new week.
