LEVITY-CUS

SOMEONE ATE AN APPLE AND WE WERE BORN. NOW SOMEONE ATE A BAT AND WE'RE DYING... YOU SEE EATING IS THE PROBLEM... NOT DRINKING!

After an accident in which, 11 people were injured and 12 died, the Minister of Health visited the hospital and promised to offer 2million to the injured and 60million to the dead for their funeral. One of the injured got up and laid where the dead were. However, one of the dead shouted, bro; go back to your place don't bring confusion here, they have counted us already.

TODAY'S WORD

Whose Father is He?

A beggar came asking for food. I told him to come around to the back door and asked him to sit on the floor while I went in and brought the leftover food.

I brought him food and said, let's pray. Now repeat after me, "Our Father in heaven". He said, "Your Father in heaven". I said, "No, say OUR Father in Heaven". He again said, "Your Father in Heaven"!!! This irritated me no end! I asked why do you say 'Your' father when I say 'Our' Father?"

He said, "Sir, it's like this. If I say Our Father, then we both become brothers. If we are brothers, you would invite me from the front door and not from the back; you would ask me to sit on your dining table not on the floor; you'd also not give me stale food!

Sir, somehow it's not possible that we are sons of the same father"!
He may be your Father, but he can't be OUR father!
Whose Father is He?
It took a beggar to teach me the truth!!!
God becomes our father if we do good to one another.

BAD COMPANY

"One day, a farmer grabbed his gun to shoot at a flock of pesky Crows. Unfortunately, he did not see his sociable Parrot that joined the Crows. After firing a few shots, he walked over to the fallen birds and was surprised to find his Parrot badly ruffled with a broken wing. When the farmer's children saw the injured bird, they asked, "Dad, what happened"? He simply answered, BAD COMPANY".

SUNDAY SCHOOL THE SERVICE GIFTS III

Text: II Kings 4:8-12

MEMORY VERSE: I commend to you Phoebe our sister, who is servant of the church in Cenchrea that you may receive her in the Lord in a manner worthy of the saint, and assist her in whatever business she has need of you; for indeed she has been a helper of many and of myself also. Roman 16:1-2

INTRODUCTION: In the last lesson, we started defining each of the service gifts, beginning from the service gift of administration. Today, we shall continue from where we stopped.

LESSON

DEFINITION, PURPOSE AND OPERATION OF EACH SERVICE GIFT (Rom. 12:6-8)

THE SERVING GIFT

1. SERVICE GIFT OF SERVING

- a. Service gift of serving is also known as the Service Gift of Ministry. Rom. 12:7
- b. It is a task - oriented ministry that results in supplying of material and temporal services to others who are in the body of Jesus Christ, thereby freeing them (others) to perform other ministries.
- c. The possessor of this gift loves to work underneath to serve others, even, as a SLAVE to them.
- d. This ministry is full of knowing peoples unmet needs and to meet them.
- e. They can quickly know and see people's needs and they are ready to serve them both in materials and body.
- f. They love to service others physically and materially so as to make their burden lighter.
- g. Example of this is Sister Phoebe, who the Bible says that she was a servant of the Church in Cenchrea. Rom. 16:1-3

2. SERVICE GIFT OF HELP

- a. Service gift of help is a gift that leads to practical ministries of others, which relieve them in turn to perform wider ministries. I Cor. 12:28.
- b. The possessor of this gift loves to work underneath to serve others, they did not like public appreciation in respect of the help rendered whether small or big.
- c. Examples are: Great woman of Shunemite (II Kings 4:8-12), Susanna (Luke 8:1-3), Confidential Secretary, Secretarial Assistant (Typist), Librarian, Store-keeper, Ushers, Sweepers of the Church Fellowship hall, Cleaners, Washers/Laundry man, Clerical Assistant/Writers etc. Mention others you know.

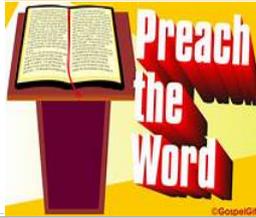

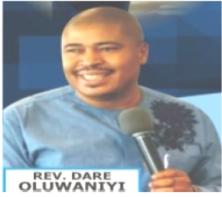

CLASS DISCUSSION

1. What do you understand by the service gift of ministry?
2. Explain the service gift of help.
3. Differentiate between the service gift of ministry (serving) and help.

CONCLUSION:

We examined the service gifts of serving (ministry) and help today. The service gift of ministry has nothing to do with the five-fold ministries but a ministry which will result in supplying material and temporal services to saints for them to be able to perform other services in the Local Church among the saints. Help us to relieve others in the Body of Jesus Christ to be able to perform wider ministries (services).

As u open your eyes today
God is opening
new doors for you.

2020 is perfect vision. May our sight focus on the Lord and living according to His perfect vision for us.

STRENGTH FOR THE LONELY

Loneliness is a painful emotion that many people fear. Paul knew what it felt like, so his life and letters can offer us encouragement when we're lonely.

Yesterday we saw how the apostle was motivated by the presence of Christ. Now let's look at what fuelled His courage.

First, Paul experienced the strength of God. Often, the Lord allows us to come to the end of our own ability so that we clearly see His hand. Otherwise, we would attribute success to our own doing.

For example, the apostle was facing possible death charges in court, and it must have been tempting to water down the truth in order to save his own life. But God enabled him to be forthright in once again proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ—fearlessly, boldly, and effectively.

Second, Paul knew he was fulfilling God's will. Despite his dire situation, the apostle found satisfaction, energy, and joy because he was obedient to God. The believer's reality is bigger than what meets the eye in the imminent moment.

Remember, even in painful circumstances, three truths are certain: Jesus stands with us; He strengthens us for whatever task our Father wants us to accomplish; and until our final breath, He will enable us to fulfil God's purpose.

Be comforted and encouraged by these promises of the living Lord.

GOD PROMISES TO MAKE SOMETHING GOOD OUT OF THE STORMS THAT BRING DEVASTATION TO YOUR LIFE.

ROMANS 8:28

Prayer is simply talking to God like a friend and should be the easiest thing we do each day.

READERS' DIGEST.

Barely the day started and...
It's already six in the evening.
Barely arrived on Monday and It's already Friday.
... And the month is already over.
... And the year is almost over.
... And already 40, 50 or 60 years
Of our lives have passed.
... And we realize that we lost our parents, friends.
And we realize it's too late to go back...
So let's try, despite everything,
To enjoy the remaining time...
Let's keep looking for activities that we like...
Let's put some colour in our grey...
Let's smile at the little things in life
That put balm in our hearts.
And despite everything,
We must continue to enjoy with serenity
This time we have left.
Let's try to eliminate the afters
I'm doing it after...
I'll say after...
I'll think about it after...
We leave everything for later
Like " after " is ours.
Because what we don't understand is that:
Afterwards, the coffee gets cold...
Afterwards, priorities change...
Afterwards, the charm is broken...
Afterwards, health passes...
Afterwards, the kids grow up...
Afterwards parents get old...
Afterwards, promises are forgotten...
Afterwards, the day becomes the night...
Afterwards life ends...
And then it's often too late...
So let's leave nothing for later...
Because still waiting see you later,
We can lose the best moments,
The best experiences,
Best friends,
The best family...
The day is today...
The moment is now...
We are no longer at the age where we can afford to postpone what needs to be done right away.
So let's see if you have time to read this message
and then share it.
Or maybe you'll leave it for... " later "...
And you'll never share it...

Enjoy life.
There's plenty of time to be dead.

He was a Master's degree holder from Cambridge University. I know by now, you will have started thinking he was from a rich family. No, far from it. He was from a wretched family. He battled his way to the top by winning scholarship after scholarship through hard work.

After badging his Masters, he came back to Nigeria and secured a job with a prominent bank as the zonal manager. He got married to the love of his life and they begot three children.

Some years later, he was wrongly indicted for fraud and was condemned to seven years imprisonment. After serving his jail term, he found it difficult to secure a job due to being an ex-convict. That is not the end of life, he thought. He decided to learn a skill when he was already in his late forties. He sought link for where he could learn POP work and a friend gave him a number of a man who is well expertise in POP making.

Alas! When he would meet the man, he turned out to be his junior in secondary school. He was not deterred anyway. He was determined to learn the work quickly to stand on his own again. His apprenticeship was not a sweet story to write about though. He came with a lot of insult, stress and ridicule but he was not deterred. Not even some polite and harsh insults from his once upon a time junior in school would make him back out.

One fateful day at site, he was working in the site with his boss when he mistakenly broke one of the POP makings in the presence of the man that owned the house. The man was so furious and started raining insult on him. Despite all his pleas, the man did not stop. All of a sudden, the man said a word that broke him. He said, "Look at him. You are using your old age to learn work when you have toyed with your youthful days. I am sure your parents would be advising you then but you heed not their advice. What you should have done then, you are now doing it with grey hair. Leave my site immediately for I am not the reason for your misfortune." Without saying a word, he left the site and headed home. His wife was not at home when he arrived. He took a rope and hanged himself to the fan. A man who survived being born in a wretched family, a man who rose to the top against all odds, a man who survived being indicted wrongly and was not broken by jail term, a man who damn the ridicule of learning work from his junior in school was broken by tongue!

Only if we all knew how powerful our tongue is, only if we knew our tongue can break or make anyone, only if we knew the words that come out from our mouth may be the last straw that will break the camel's back for a man that is already fighting a lot of battle, only if we knew word of our mouth is capable of giving a hopeless soul hope, probably we would choose to watch how we use our tongue and speak good always.

Some people have unknowingly killed many souls with the words of their mouth. Some people's tongues have committed much more atrocities than every gun in the whole world.

Please, let our tongues be the reason hopeless people see hope in living. Don't let us use our tongues to break people. Always remember your tongue is a powerful weapon you can decide to use to help humanity or to kill generations to come.

Husbands/wives; let's bridle our tongues. Remain blessed

TURN BACK TO GOD

God Is Still Willing

In Matthew 8, a man with leprosy comes to Jesus and worships Him. He does this because he knows God can do anything. In fact, he'd have probably heard about all the miracles Jesus was doing for others, but internally he had the same question you and I still have today.

"I know GOD can do anything for OTHERS but is HE really WILLING to help ME?"

*Does God really care about MY LIFE?
Which is it? Does God want to LOVE me or SLUG me?*

You know, this story of the man with leprosy is in the Bible only because God wanted to reveal His character to us once and for all. He didn't want us to be in the dark when it came to His will. And what's more, Jesus didn't want us to question whether or not He was truly willing to help us!

Jesus Heals a Man With Leprosy

In the story, the leper comes to Jesus, vulnerable and with humility, to seek healing, but he still questioned whether or not God WANTED to heal him. The leper knows all too well how much he was suffering, so he puts himself out there, probably embarrassing himself. He kneels publicly before Jesus.

So...here we finally find out if Jesus will turn the leper away and reject his desire, or whether He would welcome Him with open arms and heal him! Almost afraid to breathe, the leprous man waits on his knees before Jesus and all the people gathered around Him.

What happens next is no surprise.

The Bible says Jesus REACHED OUT and TOUCHED THE LEPER (something that was forbidden by society) and He lovingly tells this man the words many of us need to hear today.

"I AM WILLING, BE HEALED."

And at that moment, the leprosy instantly disappeared.

Today, you might be wondering if Jesus really cares about your struggles and what you are going through. I have got good news: He does.

Jesus is never changing, which means that He is always the same: yesterday, today and forever.

Today Jesus desires to help and love you through whatever you are going through.

Today, He still is willing!

Jesus reached out His hand and touched the man. "I am willing" he said. "Be clean!" Immediately he was cleaned of his leprosy. (Matthew 8:3)

OVERCOMERS

Joseph—a Type of Christ

"By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning His bones." Hebrews 11:22

Jacob had twelve sons. Joseph was his eleventh son, born to Jacob in his old age. Jacob loved Joseph more than all his children. This caused the older brothers to hate Joseph.

Once, when the older brothers were far away tending sheep, Jacob sent Joseph to see how they were. When the brothers saw Joseph coming, they conspired to kill him. One brother, Judah, did not want Joseph to be killed. He persuaded the others to sell him as a slave to a caravan of traders going to Egypt. The brothers told their father that wild beasts had killed Joseph.

Through no fault of his own, Joseph ended up as a slave in the house of Potiphar, a wealthy Egyptian man. But God was with Joseph.

Potiphar's wife was a wicked woman who tried to seduce Joseph. When he fled from her presence, she was furious. She lied to her husband and told him that Joseph had tried to force her to have sex with him.

Although Joseph was innocent, he was sent to prison and put in chains. But God was with him. Sometime later, Pharaoh, king of Egypt, had a dream that troubled him. His wise men could not tell him the meaning of the dream. The chief butler told Pharaoh that Joseph could interpret his dream. Pharaoh immediately called for Joseph.

God revealed the meaning of Pharaoh's dream to Joseph. Joseph told Pharaoh that there would be seven years when the harvest of grain would be plentiful. Then there would be seven years of famine when they would have no crops.

Joseph suggested to Pharaoh that he seek and find a wise man to put over the land of Egypt, to store the excess grain during the years of plenty, so that they would have food during the seven years of famine. Pharaoh chose Joseph to be that man. Joseph was made the ruler of all Egypt under Pharaoh.

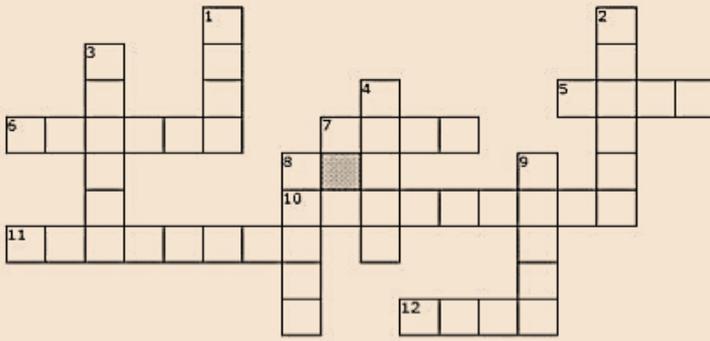

Joseph freely forgave his brothers. He sent royal wagons to bring his father, Jacob, and all his household to Egypt. There they were royally cared for by Joseph.

Joseph is a beautiful type of Christ. Joseph was hated by his brothers, sold into slavery, but exalted in the far country. All of his family came into blessing because of him.

Christ is our "Joseph." Christ, too, was hated by His brethren, the Jews, and rejected in this world. But He has been exalted to the right hand of God in Heaven. One day, He will come to take us to be with Him forever. We will come into eternal blessings because of Him.

READERS' DIGEST.

ANOTHER REASON WHY I HATED SECONDARY SCHOOL.

Back in Secondary school, I had a best friend who was like my gossip partner... I was in JSS1 then, small and mischievous... As long as I can remember, I've always had these recurring dreams where I see myself flying... Basically I'd be floating in the air a few inches from the ground and flying wherever I wanted..

I had a best friend of mine back in JSS1. So one day, I and my best friend were gisting, and then I told him about this dream I had the previous night where I was flying... Told him I used to have such dreams regularly and we laughed about it... Like that like that sha, we continued gisting... He was my gossip partner

The next day I came to school and met my friend at the assembly, so I fell in line behind him... I tried to talk to him and start a convo asking him if he did his assignment but this guy snubs me... Okay, maybe he didn't hear me, so I tap him on the shoulder "Elijah did you do your homework?"... He just shrugs my hand off his shoulders and moves to the front of the line... Wow! What did I do??

He wouldn't talk to me or answer me in class, and by break time he had moved to a different seat away from me I dunno, maybe he was jealous I was being Superman in the dreams and he wasn't... I mean, why the beef? Anyway, I just let him be for the rest of the day... Chilling and gisting with other classmates... The next day, same thing continues, he's not talking to me, as usual, I play with other people, but somehow I still miss our friendship cos I wasn't that close to others...

By the 4th day, I noticed other classmates are beginning to avoid me. Things starts to get real... My classmates aren't talking to me, side talks were going on, and crowds dispersed immediately I joined them... Mehn... Oluwa wetin dey occur. They no allow me play with them, them no gree me copy their assignments, everybody just shun me... Even the ones I used to share my lunch money with, everybody abandoned me. Until one girl staying in the same area with me come tell me what's up.

It turns out this stupid boy had gone home to brag about his friend who used to fly in the dreams, and his over-religious mother had heard it and had gone paranoid, telling him how I was a "witch" and how there were little children like me who went around initiating other kids into witchcraft blah blah blah.. She had told him not to associate with me or even collect any food or drinks from me... And this dude had gone to tell the whole class! 😞😞 NO WONDER!!!!!! 😞 So everyone was avoiding me because they thought I was a witch and I would initiate them into some coven. It was really funny to me, and I even put up some acts to scare them the more 😊 But then it all went wrong real fast!! They reported me to one of the teachers who was in charge of School Fellowship every Friday. Told him all sort of things, added lies and painted me like a devil!

Friday came... They organized fellowship as usual about one hour to closing time... We plenty for hall... Christians, some Muslims who followed their Christian friends, etc... Even the teacher in charge, and one other guy who called himself a youth pastor. Na two of them dey run fellowship... Fellowship went on smoothly... Until it got to the finishing part. Youth pastor dey pray dey form spiritual... E say e dey see vision...

Na so Youth Pastor say "There is someone here! A JSS1 student! You occasionally see yasef flying in the night!!!" Ahh!! Casted! Where I know say nar plan work nar when all my classmates just begin move dey gimme 10 yards... until it be like say only me dey inside circle.. All eyes were on me... I could see fear written on their faces, maybe they were expecting me to roll on the ground and start manifesting... Why una dey move away from me now, I don't bite?

Youth Pastor called me out! I went onto the stage. He said I should kneel down, I knelt down... He said so I was a witch... I tried to deny. They said they will flog hell out of me until I confess. Teacher was already holding cane standing behind the Youth Pastor. They said if I didn't confess, they would beat me and they would make sure they expel me after telling my parents. Small me, I was 11 years old at that time and I was very tiny, it was easy to bully a false confession out of a scared little boy..

My parents were staunch Deeper Life members back then, I was scared that if this got to them, it would be another round of trouble... All I had to do was agree I was a witch and allow then pray for me and my troubles would be over... Okay now... No problem. I confessed! They say so you are a witch... I say yes... They say how long have you been a witch... I say, going to 5 months now... They say how many students have you initiated in this school... I say I've initiated 12 students and proceed to point out different students, 3 of my classmates, my idiot best friend who snitched on me, I even picked some students just because they had beef with me..

Ahh... Ndubuisi you're owing me N50 and you want hide, I see you!!! Come out you witch!! They say who initiated me... I mentioned one Senior in SS2 who used to bully me. They sent someone to his class and called him out... I pointed out students from other classes too... If I don't like your face, I pick you! Today nar today... If I go down we all go down together!! They gathered all of us on the stage and asked us to kneel down... Anybody wey lie, them whip am cane!! Laugh dey hook me inside but I no fit laugh out... The senior try deny, them whip all him head... Baba gats confess All of them dey look me bad eye...

After plenty plenty talk, they prayed for us, laid hands on us and cast out demons from each of us after forcing us to drink olive oil and recite Psalm 38:18. They personally cast 4 demons out of me... But I regained them back later... Then they forced us to give our lives to Christ and proclaimed us new creatures... Amen. About a week later, I had the same dream again, but this time I kept my mouth shut! Those students never forgave me till I left the school in SS2...

Today, I'm a pilot

LAST WORD

Nothing takes God by surprise, anything that comes to you He allowed. Be it good or seemingly bad will eventually work for your good. (Rom 8:28) So at all times, in every situation be at rest for the Lord has you covered. His thoughts for you are the best things you can ever imagine, for no eyes have seen nor ears heard, neither entered the heart of any man.

An outspoken atheist believes it's immoral for parents to teach their children religion as though it were actually true. He even claims that parents who pass along their faith to their children are committing child abuse. Though these views are extreme, I do hear from parents who are hesitant to boldly encourage their children toward faith. While most of us readily hope to influence our children with our view of politics or nutrition or sports, for some reason some of us treat our convictions about God differently.

In contrast, Paul wrote of how Timothy had been taught "from infancy . . . the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make U wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus" 2Tim 3:15. Timothy didn't arrive at faith as an adult through the power of his own, unaided reason. Rather, his mother nurtured his heart toward God; then he continued in what he had learned. If God is life, the source of true wisdom, then it's vital for us to tenderly cultivate a love for God in our families.

There are many belief systems that are influencing our children. TV shows, movies, music, teachers, friends, the media—each of these carry assumptions (either obvious or under the radar) about faith that exert real influence. May we choose not to be silent. The beauty and grace we've experienced compels us to guide our children toward God.

LAUGHTER'S THE BEST

A man fell into a well and was screaming for help His wife came with a rope, tied one end to a pillar and threw the other end inside the well. The man looked at the rope and asked: "How much did you buy this rope?" The wife said 1,500. "WHAT?!" the man screamed from inside the well, "return it to the seller now-now and go to Mama Queen's shop down the street. Her own is 300. Hurry up before I die here!

As you walk with the Lord in good faith, fear not, stand still, and see the salvation of the almighty God. The Lord shall fight for you, defend you and establish your foot on a solid rock. There shall be peace in your household. The almighty God that heals the broken heart and he that binds the wounds will pour his soothing oil upon you, to redeem you. The Lord will cut off every evildoers in your path of success, and you shall inherit the earth with abundance of peace. As you wait patiently on the Lord, and keep his commandments, the most gracious and merciful God shall exalt you to inherit the land, and your inheritance shall be forever in the mighty name of Jesus Christ our Lord and saviour. Amen.
