LEVITY-CUS

My friend came home from work, cleaned himself and sat for dinner. After the first bite he scolded his wife that food was tasteless.

His wife got up, called the COVID hotline and told them that her husband doesn't have the sense of taste any more. National ambulance came and took him away and now he is in 14 days quarantine...

This is a warning to all men who find their wife's cooking tasteless.

September is the ninth month. The most uncomfortable time in a woman's pregnancy is the last month (the ninth). That's why when delivery comes, the doctor has to force her to push. You will deliver this year and in this ninth month. All the miscarriages of the past are over. You will not suffer "failure at the edge of success" or "promise and fail" anymore. No more spiritual abortions. You will give birth to greatness. You will celebrate, so don't get tired. Don't get lazy. Don't let anything make you heavy. Stay focused.

What Jesus did for me is priceless.

Text: Romans 12:1-8

MEMORY VERSE: "Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith," Roman 12:6

INTRODUCTION: In section three, our concern will be on service gifts. "... And ye shall serve; I have given your priest's office unto you as a service of gift: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death" (Numbers 18:1-7, particularly verse 7b-d). According to Numbers 18:7, service gift is not for strangers (unbelievers).

LESSON

1. DEFINITION OF SERVICE GIFT

- a. Service Gifts are for service of the saints.
- b. They operate so naturally in the recipient; he is often unaware of his own gifts; but they are extraordinary endowments given by the Holy Spirit sovereignty and undeserved to believers for Christian service given at their regeneration.

2. PREREQUISITES FOR THE EFFECTIVE OPERATION (OF ONE'S GIFT)

a. Man's Responsibility.

- i. Presenting my body to God. Rom. 12:1-2
 1. To prove what is good, acceptable and perfect will of God.
 2. The importance of our bodies in God's economy: I Cor. 6:17-18
- ii. Separation from the world. I John 2:15-17, James 4:4, II Cor. 6:17-18
 1. Do not be conformed to this world - the order.
 2. Be separated unto God (Christ's example - Romans 6:9-10).
- iii. Mind Renewal
 1. Purpose: to avoid contamination of service
 2. Reason: The presence of the world's philosophy, attitude, wisdom, logic and reasoning must be removed and replaced from the mind. Satan uses these things to fortress the mind, and for those years we were under his servitude, we have accumulated many of his philosophies in our minds.
 3. How? : How is this accomplished?
 - a. This is accomplished by the Word of God - through ministrations or personal study. As we continue in the word daily, the word pulls down every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God. II Cor. 10:3-5, Rom. 6:6, Col. 1:27, Eph. 4:22-24.

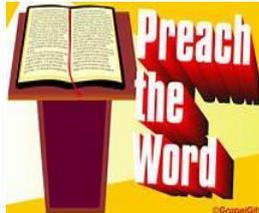

b. God's Responsibility. Romans 12:3

- i. He gives grace.
- ii. He gives a measure of faith.
 1. Faith is always necessary to release the gift.
 2. The gift will function, "according to the proportion of faith." Rom. 12:6

CLASS DISCUSSION

1. Define service gifts.
2. What are the prerequisites for the effective operation of this gift?
3. Explain Numbers 18:7

CONCLUSION: We have seen what service gift is and prerequisites for the effective operation of the gift. We will continue from where we stopped in the next lesson.

2020 is perfect vision. May our sight focus on the Lord and living according to His perfect vision for us.

STAYING ON COURSE

The Christian life can be likened to a race with a finish line in eternity.

Our goal is to stay on track and run with endurance, but we won't know the way forward unless we focus on Jesus. Because He ran the race perfectly, He can show us the way.

As with any long-term race, the course is full of obstacles that threaten to trip or side-track us.

Temptations lure us to what we imagine are lush green pastures, while busyness can lead us down rabbit trails that end in exhaustion.

Worry and fear grab hold of our mind, and emotions take us places the Lord never intended for us to go.

Although sins are the most obvious threat, anything that takes precedence over our relationship with the Lord can send us down the wrong path.

It's easy to let our families, jobs, and pleasures distract us from a wholehearted pursuit of Christ.

Surprisingly, even God's blessings can hinder us if we start to prioritize them over the Lord.

For us as believers, the goal isn't to focus on the path or find our own way.

We're to fix our eyes on Jesus—He's our guide and destination, and He will welcome us home when we cross the finish line into eternity.

As you step out today, the host of heaven shall support you. Every doors of victory, joy, shall be opened unto you. Every impossibility shall be made possible. In Jesus Mighty Name. Today you will rise above your enemies no matter how they try. By the special grace of God, Where there is joy, it shall be endless joy. Where you are experiencing pain, God will give you peace and mercy.

In place of doubt, God Almighty will release renewed confidence for you. Where there is need, God will give you more than enough and bless your home continuously, bless your finances, bless your going out and your coming in, In Jesus mighty name Amen.

The Door of reproach and delay is closed over your life.

Romans 8:11 ASV

"I think part of trusting God is looking to the future with excitement, not worry and dread. We know that He is going to work out everything for His good, and in that joy is found."

One mistake you should never make is to allow yourself to be recruited by someone, to hate another person who hasn't wronged you. Hear this: "*we must avoid taking hasty conclusion because of what others are saying about someone else. What people say about others, says a lot about them. I am repeating this more directly: The things you say about others, says a lot about you! I can tell a lot about a person by what they choose to see in others.

Character assassination* is a pervasive and destructive phenomenon that is found everywhere. You find it in families, churches, organizations, work places, etc. Wikipedia defines Character assassination as the deliberate, malicious, unjustified and sustained effort to damage the reputation or credibility of an individual. The Merriam-Webster defines it as the slandering of a person usually with the intention of destroying public confidence in that person. Athi Murugan defines "Character Assassination" as the act of lowering one's character in a bid to ruin the character of others.

There are people that take maximum delight in ruining other's reputation. These set of people have what I will like to call 'Destructive Tendencies'. They oil their own ego by pulling other people down. PhD (pull him down). False allegations are the most chronic form of mental abuse. When people can't kill your dreams and purpose, they will try to assassinate your character. There are some people that your spirit will always irritate their demons! Once they realize hating isn't working they start telling and spreading lies about you. People are assassinated once but 'Character Assassination' kills daily! Character assassination is a form of emotional violence against others. Someone once said, "A friend of my enemy is my enemy." One of the things that hinders us from living a fulfilling and inclusive life is bringing past bias and sentiments into present relationships. A friend of your enemy is not necessarily your enemy; it all depends on intentions and contributions. God can use your enemy's friend to bless you!

7 critical 'DON'Ts' that you really need to guard yourself against.

Refusing to getting trapped in them will help you live a more productive, fulfilling and unbiased life. They are:

1. Don't conclude about people because of what others say about them: Never draw up conclusions based on what others tell you about someone. It is a lack of social intelligence that makes people draw conclusions on others based on what other people say about them. I know you've heard about emotional and financial intelligence, but there is something called social intelligence. This is the kind of intelligence that keeps you sane even when others are trying to pollute your mind against someone else until you have thoroughly confirmed the veracity of the claims before you. Judges are trained to have this kind of intelligence in order to avoid biased judgments.

2. Don't inherit other people's enemy: It is total lack of education and enlightenment when you automatically make your friend's enemies your own. Don't make people your enemies just because they are not in good terms with your friends.

3. Don't use your children as weapons of war:

God can use your enemies to bless your children! The Bible says that your children are for signs and wonders. Stop using them to fight those you don't like. Your children will need to discern their enemies for themselves; never use your parental influence to make your children hate others. You may often need to guard them with their choice of friends but never plant the seed of discord in the heart of your children against someone else.

4. Don't gang up with others to hate someone: Don't join the majority to hate someone – you may realize that the person has no offence. Someone said, "If you don't see it with your own eyes, or hear it with your own ears. Don't invent it with your small mind and share it with your big mouth". Never join the multitude to hate someone else.

5. Don't be used as weapon in other people's battle: It is not every battle that you must involve yourself in. Refuse to be used as weapons in other people's battle. When people fight dirty, refuse to take sides. Observe deeply before concluding finally.

6. Don't hate people just because they don't behave like you: That someone is not your tribe doesn't make them your enemy. It is a waste of education if the only people you like are those that are like you. The greatest proof of our education is in how we respond to people whose opinions are different from ours. People who think their opinions are superior to others are most prone to overestimating their relevant knowledge and ignoring chances to learn more.

The people who don't think like you are your greatest source of enlightenment. It is normally people that are not like us that help us grow the most. Companies that had maximized growth are really those that value diversity and inclusion.

7. Don't judge people until you know the whole story: Someone once said,* "Beware of the half-truth. You may have gotten hold of the wrong half". Don't judge other people's choices without understanding their reasons. If people say something bad about you or judge you as if they know you, don't easily get affected. Remember this, dogs bark if they don't know the person. People who are intimidated by you talk about you with hopes that others won't find you so appealing.

THE FOUNTAIN YOUTHS

OVERCOMERS

The coming of the Holy Spirit.

glorified and exalted in Heaven, the Holy Spirit would be given to them. Jesus said, "At that day you shall know that I am in My Father, and you in Me, and I in you" (John 14:20).

Fifty days after Christ rose from the grave, on the feast day of Pentecost, 120 of Jesus' disciples were in an upper room in Jerusalem. Suddenly there came a sound from Heaven, like a mighty wind, and it filled the house where they were sitting.

The Bible says, "There appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit..." (Acts 2:3-4). The Holy Spirit had come! What did this prove to the disciples? It proved to them that the Man Jesus Christ was now on the throne of Heaven. He is "Lord of all"!

The disciples were transformed.

On the Day of Pentecost, the disciples were transformed. They became bold and fearless. Peter, who had denied the Lord three times, stood up in front of the very ones who crucified the Lord Jesus and said,

"This Jesus has God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses... Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God has made that same Jesus, whom you have crucified, both Lord and Christ" (Acts 2:32,36).

What changed the disciples from weak, fearful, cowardly men to strong, fearless, bold witnesses for Christ?

They had seen the risen Christ, touched Him, talked with Him, and ate with Him. He was the same Jesus whom they knew and loved, but now He had a glorious, new, resurrection body.

They knew that Christ was on the throne of Heaven. The One they knew and loved was now "Lord of all," with all power in Heaven and in the earth. He was in complete control. They did not need to fear anyone.

They knew that Jesus was with them at all times, no matter where they went. They had learned the lesson that He was always with them, whether visible or invisible.

They knew that they belonged to Jesus, and that one day He would take them to be with Him forever. Jesus said, "...I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto Myself..." (John 14:2-3).

TURN BACK TO GOD

Why God Created The Disabled And The Poor

God created man, but it was man who caused sin to come into the world when Adam and Eve ate the apple in the Garden of Eden. Ever since then, sin has taken shape in the form of sickness, disease, hate, greed etc... This is not to say that people with sickness and disabilities have brought it upon themselves but that the evolution of sin has distorted what God created, which was a perfect human being in His own image.

Man's Sin

Man's sin has caused us to abuse the resources the world has to offer. This is ultimately creating more disease and disabilities because our water and food is poisoned by man's interference. Sin in the form of greed, has also caused there to be a great divide between the wealthy and poor. If greed did not exist there would be enough food to feed everyone on the planet because God's intention was to provide for his children. When sin entered our world, it caused us to be separated from God.

God created two worlds: this life, and the Hereafter. The Hereafter is the greater life – which lasts forever. This life is short, difficult, full of pain and injustice. We ask ourselves: why would God allow all this? Some people end up disbelieving in God. Their reasoning is that: if God is good, why would He allow terrible things to happen?

This life is only a Test

The answer is that this short, difficult life is only a test. The result of the test is what is important. What do you think of someone who lives for a hundred years, having everything he or she ever needs – wealth, fun, and friends – but then ends up for the rest of eternity suffering in Hell because of his or her disbelief and evil deeds? Would you say that person was fortunate, or unfortunate? And what would you say about a person who lived life suffering poverty, illness or oppression – but enters Paradise because of his or her belief and good deeds, and is given great things to enjoy – forever? Would they be unfortunate, or fortunate?

Like a child who is afraid of the Doctor

The suffering in this life is like a child who is afraid of the doctor. He is so scared; and he does not understand why his parents – who love him – would put him through such an awful thing. But the parents know that, if the child suffers a little by going to the doctor, it will be BETTER for him – for the rest of his life. That is what God knows – and we are just little children. We may dislike something which will actually be good for us, and we may like and desire something which may be bad for us. It is God who knows – and we do not.

I think, God created the Universe in different forms especially to maintain the balance of the world to enable living things lead a perfect and decent life. All the creations are in the universe are in the intention of maintain the balance. He had given the humans the sixth sense and self-determination to live independently to lead our life in a way He wants to be.

As the nature of the earth is also different and it is necessary the creations has to be in different shapes and nature to exist in that environment. Like all other creations among human poor, disable etc. are created in the same manner. Our behavioural patterns also deciding factor on this. Actually we do not know the benefits in those creations and Creator only knows.

READERS' DIGEST.

According to Leviticus

On her radio show, Dr. Laura said that, as an observant Orthodox Jew, homosexuality is an abomination according to Leviticus 18:22, and cannot be condoned under any circumstance. The following response is an open letter to Dr. Schlesinger, written by a US man, and posted on the Internet. It's funny, as well as quite informative:

Dear Dr. Laura:

Thank you for doing so much to educate people regarding God's Law. I have learned a great deal from your show, and try to share that knowledge with as many people as I can. When someone tries to defend the homosexual lifestyle, for example, I simply remind them that Leviticus 18:22 clearly states it to be an abomination. End of debate. I do need some advice from you, however, regarding some other elements of God's Laws and how to follow them.

1. Leviticus 25:44 states that I may possess slaves, both male and female, provided they are purchased from neighbouring nations. A friend of mine claims that this applies to Mexicans, but not Canadians. Can you clarify? Why can't I own Canadians?
2. I would like to sell my daughter into slavery, as sanctioned in Exodus 21:7. In this day and age, what do you think would be a fair price for her?
3. I know that I am allowed no contact with a woman while she is in her period of menstrual uncleanness - Lev.15: 19-24. The problem is, how do I tell? I have tried asking, but most women take offense.
4. When I burn a bull on the altar as a sacrifice, I know it creates a pleasing odour for the Lord - Lev.1:9. The problem is my neighbours. They claim the odour is not pleasing to them. Should I smite them?
5. I have a neighbour who insists on working on the Sabbath. Exodus 35:2 clearly states he should be put to death. Am I morally obligated to kill him myself, or should I ask the police to do it?
6. A friend of mine feels that even though eating shellfish is an abomination, Lev. 11:10, it is a lesser abomination than homosexuality. I don't agree. Can you settle this? Are there 'degrees' of abomination?
7. Lev. 21:20 states that I may not approach the altar of God if I have a defect in my sight. I have to admit that I wear reading glasses. Does my vision have to be 20/20, or is there some wiggle-room here?
8. Most of my male friends get their hair trimmed, including the hair around their temples, even though this is expressly forbidden by Lev. 19:27. How should they die?
9. I know from Lev. 11:6-8 that touching the skin of a dead pig makes me unclean, but may I still play football if I wear gloves?
10. My uncle has a farm. He violates Lev.19:19 by planting two different crops in the same field, as does his wife by wearing garments made of two different kinds of thread (cotton/polyester blend). He also tends to curse and blaspheme a lot. Is it really necessary that we go to all the trouble of getting the whole town together to stone them? Lev.24:10-16. Couldn't we just burn them to death at a private family affair, like we do with people who sleep with their in-laws? (Lev. 20:14)

I know you have studied these things extensively and thus enjoy considerable expertise in such matters, so I'm confident you can help. Thank you again for reminding us that God's word is eternal and unchanging.

NEVER JUDGE PEOPLE BY YOUR OWN STANDARD

When Black Panther's superstar actor Chadwick Boseman released these pictures of himself few months back, so many people descended on him calling him all sorts of name. They were acidic in their comments on his loss of weight and how haggard he looked.

He was so ashamed of the comments that he had to delete the pictures and even suspended his account.

What all of them never knew was that the great actor was dying slowly from cancer but never mentioned it to anyone till he took his last breathe at the age of 43 years yesterday.

Now all of them are shedding crocodile tears eulogising him

That is the way of the world.

People judge you by their standard not taking into cognisance what your inner pains were.

LAST WORD

It is very important that the children of God declare His interventions in their lives as at when due. That is why the bible reminds us of the need to make a joyful noise unto the Lord. God has brought us safely into the beginning of another new month, having preserved us all through the past months. He didn't allow us to pass from sleep to death. He fought all our battles and gave us victory over the enemies on every front. He provided for us and provided for us and gave us sound health and sound body. We need to be grateful unto Him and declare His goodness upon our lives.

You can make a joyful noise by prayer, declarations, singing songs of worship and praise giving special seed or thanksgiving offering, renewal of covenants, etc.

Nothing is too much to appreciate God's goodness in our lives. God is the owner of every wealth. We are only custodians of those things He has committed into our care.

So, whatever we expend in the course of declaring God's glory can never be deemed as too much. No matter what you give, you can never give above Him. Remember, He gave His most prized possession in the person of His only begotten Son Jesus Christ. This is the Gift that has secured and ensured our eternity. Remember, we just returned from months of lockdown following the Corona Virus pandemic during which many people lost their lives irrespective of their social, economic and political status. Is it a light thing that God chose to keep you alive to see this day?

Every day, we are inundated with news of merciless killings. Yet, God preserved you.

Is it not something that deserves rendering of thanks unto the Lord? That is why you must testify and declare His goodness and offer worthy thanksgiving offering. Think about it. When you show appreciation for what God has done and therefore render thanks unto Him, He will see you as a grateful child and therefore feel obliged to do more for you. Many people today have halted their testimonies because they never saw it as expedient to appreciate God, especially for the gift of life. Rather, they keep complaining about those things they feel God has not done for them. This is a very

PRAYER POINTS

1. O God my father, thank you for preserving me/my family, business, career and academics all through the past month and for bringing me safely into the beginning of another new month. To you alone be all the glory, in Jesus name.
2. Father, in this new month, I ask that you take charge of my going and coming in and let your will be done, in Jesus name.
3. Every river of hardship, sorrow, failure, poverty, hard labour, disappointment and rejection; I dry you up by fire in the Name of Jesus.
4. Every satanic voice that says I will never succeed, I shut you up in Jesus' Name.
5. This is my season of success and new beginnings. No satanic power will steal it in Jesus' Name.
6. From today I am going higher, I will never come down again.
7. Every piece of my life in the hand of the wicked, I recover now by fire. Be put together now in Jesus' Name.
8. I break and loose myself free from every curse of financial bondage.
9. Every filthy rag the enemy has put on me, catch fire and burn to ashes.
10. I shall bring forth greatness all the rest of this year in Jesus' Name.

If you do not find time to rest, people will lay you to rest and tell your corpse to rest in peace. Please find time to rest!!!

LAUGHTER'S THE BEST

When I was growing up, if my Dad refused to eat because he is angry with my Mum, my mother will ask him to forgive and beg him to eat. She will often invite my father's relation to beg him before he eats. I tried this yesterday and up till now my wife has not called my people and I have not eaten. Should I eat or I should wait until she invites them to come and beg me 😞😞 I need your advice bcos it appears I am having trouble seeing objects...Im hungry and feeling dizzy 😞😞.

Men don't actually know what makes women happy, I will tell you. Security, Affection, Love, Attention, Respect and You. In short S.A.L.A.R.Y 😊
