9th August 2020

PSALM 5: For You, O LORD, will bless the righteous. With favour you will surround him as with a shield.

Congratulations!!
AUGUST will be a month filled with blessings, massive success, financial growth,
 new opportunities,
 love and happiness.
 Get ready to receive everything you've been waiting and praying for.
 This will be a blessed month for you and your family.
 Tell God, "Thank you."

This 8th month of the year, may you get all that has eluded you from January. This August, things shall augur well for you. 8 stands for new beginning. May the Almighty God do a new thing (Isaiah 43.19) in your life.

Take a moment to breathe and appreciate how far you have come.

"A Gentle Reminder"

It's been 6 months since February 2020 when Corona hit us and you are still here alive. God has been faithful.

TODAY'S WORD

If one day, we all are allowed to put our problems on a table and exchange them, I'm sure that after few minutes, everyone would silently take back their own and leave the table. There is no such thing like a perfect life, nobody has it all together. Just as our faces are different, so are our problems. Never be envious of what someone else has. You don't know the price they paid to get it and the price they are paying to keep it. You don't own half of the problems in this world. While you are discreetly wishing to be like the other person, someone else is seriously praying for that life you take for granted. Sometimes the people you envy, are actually wishing they could have the life you live.

God is not in a hurry. You are. It's why you are tired. It's why you are anxious, and stressed, and disappointed. Trust that what was meant to be yours, will be yours.

Yes, work towards a degree and work towards earthly friendships, but do so in His name. Chase the author of love and One who created you first. How are you supposed to figure out your purpose in this world if you don't first follow the One who created your purpose? Try your best. Study for the test. Do some squats. But focus fully on His name. And in your weariness, brokenness, and on days when you are overwhelmed, breathe in-and-out. Then, look at where your feet are planted. God put you where you are for a reason. He's gotten you this far. Why don't you trust Him with your tomorrow?

LIFE

Too much money, blocks your vision of life.

Education alone gives you a limited view.

Education and Money puts you on a balance to life.

A life without education and money, leaves you in the dark.

FAITH CLINIC

Once you have been enthroned and have enjoyed a new level of success in warfare, you begin to believe for the impossible. You begin to talk in signs and wonders. You have seen so many big enemies destroyed that nothing seems hard anymore. You just walk into rooms and things begin to happen. When the widow of Zarephath told Elijah that her son was dead, he didn't ask her any questions about how it happened. He didn't sit down with her to console her. He simply said, "Give me your son." He carried the boy upstairs, laid him on the bed, laid on top of the boy's body three times and uttered a few simple words. The boy came back to life. Elijah carried him back to his mother and said. "Your son is alive." From beginning to end, the whole story probably took five minutes. That is the power and authority attached to being a joint heir with Christ. You do not have time for argument or questions, you just do it. You will learn how to push for the impossible this month in Jesus' Name.

LEVITY-CUS

DIPLOMACY AT ITS BEST:

The family, while preparing the family history, was confounded as how to describe their criminal uncle, who was executed, tied to the electric chair in the prison. They wanted to show him in a positive light. Ultimately, they came up with the following text : "Uncle Jerome occupied the chair of applied electronics at a leading government institution. He was attached to his position by strong ties. His death came as a shock."

i think we ask God to speak to us and wait for a loud, booming voice to speak. and if you keep waiting for that you'll miss all the little things He is saying to you. how He's whispering to your heart. don't miss Him in the quiet looking for Him in the loud.

2020 is perfect vision: Fear Not. The Lord will perfect all that concerns you and me in Jesus' Mighty name. Amen

THE MANIFESTATION GIFTS XV

TEXT: Matthew 8:1-17

MEMORY VERSE: "How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him." Acts 10:38

INTRODUCTION: We shall consider today the second gift under the third category of the manifestation gifts of the Holy Spirit. We shall be treating the manifestation gift of healings.

LESSON IV: THE GIFTS OF POWER (OR DEEDS)

THE MANIFESTATION GIFT OF HEALINGS

1. INSTANCES OF THE MANIFESTATION OF HEALINGS

- a. As it manifested in the life of Christ. Matthew 8:1-17
- b. As it manifested in the Old Testament. II Kings 2:18-22, 5:9-15

2. DEFINITION OF MANIFESTATION GIFT OF HEALINGS

- a. The gift of healings is a special work by which sickness is cured and the individual is made whole. Success do come through careless, ignorance, uncleanness, malnutrition and devil
- b. The gift of healings is beyond the normal and natural abilities of man and medicine.
- c. It is a supernatural action of God's healing power which destroys the works of the devil in the human body.

3. FIVE BIBLICAL WAYS TO RECEIVE PHYSICAL HEALINGS

- a. Individual prayer of faith. John 14:13-15
 - i. Give examples of three people who through their faith received healing during the Jesus Christ earthly ministry.
- b. Collective prayer of faith. Matthew 18:19
 - i. Give examples where collective prayers of people have set people free from the bondage and sickness.
- c. Calling for the elders to anoint the sick and pray. James 5:13-15.
- d. The manifestation of the gift of healings. I Cor. 12:9.
- e. God's personal mercy revealed on the recipient. Luke. 13:10-17, John 5:1-9
 - i. POINT: All the five of the above are subject to the will of God and the leading of the Holy Spirit, not what the individuals presume.

CONCLUSION: We shall conclude the discussion on the manifestation gift of healing in the next lesson.

Dearly beloved, the Lord our helper will contend against all that contend against you and give you all round VICTORY and favour you in Jesus mighty name.

I pray as gold is special among metals, diamond among stones and eagle among birds, so shall the Lord make YOU SPECIAL among the living. When you get to the cross road of life (Isaiah 30:21), God shall direct you, there shall be divine solutions to every challenges before you and every areas of your needs in Jesus Name, Amen.

Rejoice! 😊

In the name that is above all other names, I pray that Jesus will be moved to settle you and sort your issues out miraculously, even at the hour of hopelessness. Your need shall be met according to

A Bounty of Beautiful Beginnings & Blissful Neverendings of joy, peace, love, happiness, good health and prosperity to you and your loved ones. May your prayers be answered and your dreams come to light in the Month ahead...

Everything God has purposed for your life, this month by all means, shall all manifest in Jesus' name. Go now and manifest in your ORIGINAL!

CHOOSING ETERNAL LIFE

Let's start with the bad news: We are all born physically alive but dead to the things of God. Every one of us starts existence in a condition of sinfulness that separates us from the Lord. Our unrighteousness automatically places us under His judgment and wrath.

Now for the good news: Salvation means communion with God forever.

By trusting in the Saviour's sacrifice on our behalf, we are saved—in other words, we receive the eternal life of Jesus through His Spirit. At that moment, intimacy with God begins here on earth, and it continues forever in heaven.

Keep in mind that there is an enemy who wants us to think physical death is the end of life. But Scripture tells us the truth: Eternity will be spent either with God in heaven or in a permanent hell, separated from Him.

Our response to the salvation Jesus offers is the deciding factor with regard to our ultimate destination. If we reject His sacrifice, then there is no forgiveness of sins and no relationship with God through the Holy Spirit.

But if, by faith, we accept Christ's payment for our sins and receive Him as Lord, then we will enter into an everlasting home with our heavenly Father.

The choice is yours to make: What will eternity look like for you?

2020 is perfect vision. May our sight focus on the Lord and living according to His perfect vision for us.

THE FOUNTAIN YOUTHS

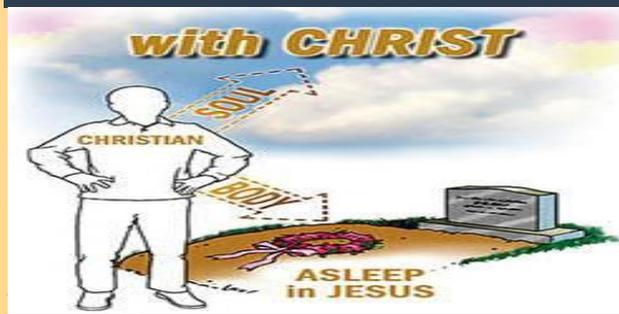

OVERCOMERS

Jesus is our living Saviour!

Jesus was crucified about nine o'clock in the morning. He died about three o'clock in the afternoon. From noon until three o'clock, there was darkness over the face of the earth. Jesus cried out, "Father, into Your hands I commend My spirit." The God-man had died.

Jesus died on the cross, but He did not stay dead. He rose from the grave on the third day. He is our living Saviour! God has promised eternal life to all who take Him as their Saviour.

Can God really make His children alive again after death? Yes, He can! We know He can because He raised His Son from the dead. Jesus said, "Because I live, you shall live also" (John 14:19).

He goes to be with Jesus in Heaven! The body is laid in the grave, but the person—soul and spirit—goes immediately to be with Jesus.

If you have taken Christ as your Saviour, you do not have to fear death. For the child of God, death is like walking from one place into another. We go from this life with all its sorrow and suffering into Heaven, to be forever with Jesus and with our loved ones who trusted Jesus as their Saviour.

When Jesus comes again, He will give us wonderful, new, resurrection bodies like His glorious resurrection body. What will we be like then? We will be like Jesus!

THREE GREAT FACTS

1. Jesus died on the cross, forsaken by His friends, His disciples, and by God Himself.

2. God put His Son on the cross, because there was no other way we could be saved. Men could never have crucified God's Son had it not been His will.

3. It was our sins that made Christ's death necessary. God is perfectly satisfied with the sacrifice which He Himself provided. He forgives the sins of every person who takes Jesus as his Saviour.

TURN BACK TO GOD

Why Is Jesus Christ's Blood So Powerful?

The death of Jesus is meaningless to many people. The mention of Christ's blood is distasteful to them. The message of Jesus death, His blood and the work of redemption are still foolishness to a people who would like to believe that man could save himself by his own goodness.

The first shedding of blood

In the book of Genesis chapter 3:7, we learn that Adam and Eve were naked and ashamed when they disobeyed God. 'So they sewed fig leaves together to make themselves loincloths.' For the first time, blood was shed that the nakedness of Adam and Eve might be covered. 'Yahweh made clothes out of skins for man and his wife and they put them on.' (Gen.3:21).

Jesus Blood – The object of our faith

Man is unable to redeem himself because he is a sinner. By shedding His blood, Christ became the 'way' to provide forgiveness for sin, there by satisfying the holy demands of the Heavenly Father. This is why St. John says, 'He is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours only but for the sins of the whole world.' (1Jn.2:2). Jesus blood is the object of our faith, as St. Paul states, 'And we are justified through the free gifts of His grace by being redeemed in Christ Jesus who was appointed by God to sacrifice His life so as to win reconciliation through faith.' (Rm.3:25).

Without the Blood of Jesus Christ and His grace it would be impossible for man to have victory over sin. And during the Last Supper, Our Lord offered Himself in an unbloody yet real sacrifice when He uttered the following words, 'For this is my blood of the new testament, which shall be shed for many unto remission of sins.' (Matt. 26:28). Truly, this 'shedding of blood' or 'pouring out of blood' took place and formed one of the glorious mysteries of our faith.

Why is there Power in Precious Blood of Jesus Christ?

There is power in the Precious Blood of Jesus because the Blood represents His Divine Life. The blood that Christ shed right from the time of His circumcision till His death on Calvary was not that of goats and bulls, but His very own divine life blood. 'Without shedding of blood there is no forgiveness' (Heb.9:22).

In the Old Testament, the forgiveness of sins is related to the slain animals symbolically bore the punishment for sin that the people deserved. People were forgiven and pardoned for their sins, but the blood of their sacrifice did not justify them. But the death of Jesus Christ who knew no sin, who was Holy and blameless and pure, was able to pay the penalty for our sins. This one sacrifice Christ accomplished 'once for all' brings us back into fellowship with God. This ransom penalty was paid for every believer in Christ and the entire world over.

The believer is not only a pardoned sinner, but also a justified saint declared righteous in the sight of God, because the benefits of Christ death at Calvary have been applied to his account. 'Having died to make us righteous, is it likely that he would now fail to save us from God's anger? For the power of the Precious Blood to be appropriated in one's life, one has to turn to Christ in sincere faith and repentance. It is said that the Blessed Virgin venerated the Most precious Blood of her infant Son on the day of His circumcision as she collected the first relics of His Precious Blood on a piece of cloth.

On that momentous occasion she united her tears with that of the Word Incarnate on account of not so much of the sensible pain but of His supernatural sorrow for the hard-heartedness of mortals.

READERS' DIGEST.

* Some lessons for all.

My mother graduated in 1965 and got a teaching job at Government College, Ibadan. The teachers were given car loans and she bought a brand new Opel Kadett. They were to pay back the loan over 4 years. However, one of the teachers took half of the money the others took as loan. Bought a fairly used car and got a driver.

So, when other teachers would drive to school and park their brand new cars, his driver would drop him off in the morning and come pick him at closing. My mum said they laughed at him, calling him "Acting Big Man" because he got a driver. But he'd just smile.

One day, one of the teachers had cause to go out of the school during school hours. He returned to report that he saw his colleague's driver using his car as a taxi! When they "reported" his driver to him, he said he was aware- that was why he hired a driver. Why park a car for 6-8 hours, when it can be making money for you?

The other teachers were stunned: suddenly, he didn't look as stupid as they thought!

Now, because of the extra income from using his car as a taxi, he was able to pay back the loan in a year...

By the 2nd year, he bought a 2nd car to add to his taxi fleet.

By the 3rd year, he bought 2 more taxis!

By the 4th year when my mum and others finished paying their loans, this guy had 6 taxis.

Then he bought a brand new Opel Kadett, the newer model! Other cars were 4 years old.

My mum said that was the moment they realised who was smart and who was foolish among them all.

This happened 1965-1970.

I was born in 1968, in the midst of this. That story was told me in 1979 when I entered secondary school. It has remained with me since then. Today, I see too many young folks more interested in spending the money they don't have to buy the things they don't need to impress people who don't like them. Too many people living fake lives in these days of social media.

The Hushpuppi generation: fake it till you make it. I've seen people pose by cars they don't own to take pictures and post on social media. Young people don't seem to understand discretion: the competition to outdo each other in the "I've arrived" ranking is just too much. My niece, an undergraduate asked me to buy her a phone. I asked what type she wanted: she mentioned a type, I checked the price: 300k! Now, I use an Infinix Hot 5 worth 35k, thereabouts- it was even a gift by one of my site contractors. But this 20-year-old girl wants to use a 300k phone! Something is definitely wrong somewhere...!

Seriously, we can't continue like this. My generation is halfway out. I am afraid for the younger generation,

DO NOT LEAVE THIS STORY UNREAD, NO MATTER HOW MANY TIMES YOU'VE READ IT BEFORE

A woman baked bread for members of her family and an extra one for a hungry passer-by. She kept the extra bread on the Window-sill, for whosoever would take it away. Every day, a hunch-back came and took away the bread. Instead of expressing gratitude, he muttered the following words as he went his way: "The evil you do remains with you: The good you do, comes back to you!" This went on, day after day. Every day, the hunch-back came, picked up the bread and uttered the words: "The evil you do, remains with you: The good you do, comes back to you!" The woman felt irritated. "Not a word of gratitude," she said to herself... "Every day this hunch-back utters this jingle! What does he mean?" One day, out of desperation, she decided to do away with him. "I shall get rid of this hunch-back," she said. And what did she do? She added poison to the bread she prepared for him! As she was about to keep it on the window sill, her hands trembled. "What is this I am doing?" she said. Immediately she threw the bread into the fire, prepared another one and kept it on the window-sill. As usual, the hunch-back came, picked up the bread and muttered the words: "The evil you do, remains with you: The good you do, comes back to you!" The hunch-back proceeded on his way, blissfully unaware of the war raging in the mind of the woman. Every day, as the woman placed the bread on the window-sill, she offered a prayer for her son who had gone to a distant place to seek his fortune. For many months, she had no news of him... She prayed for his safe return.

That evening, there was a knock on the door. As she opened it, she was surprised to find her son standing in the doorway... He had grown thin and lean. His garments were tattered and torn. He was hungry, starved and weak. As he saw his mother, he said, "Mom, it's a miracle I'm here. While I was but a mile away, I was so hungry that I collapsed. I would have died, but just then an old hunch-back passed by. I begged of him for a small part of his food, and he was kind enough to give me whole bread. "As he gave it to me, he said, "This is what I eat every day: today, I shall give it to you, for your need is greater than mine!" "As the mother heard those words, her face turned pale and red. She leaned against the door for support.

She remembered the poisoned bread that she had made that morning. Had she not burnt it in the fire, it would have been eaten by her own son, and he would have lost his life! It was then that she realized the significance of the words: "The evil you do remains with you: The good you do, comes back to you!"

Listen SON, your antagonist will increase at every second of your progress-- my entrepreneur mentor said some few years ago. As he walked through the environment, he said, walk with me. I have something to show you.

He went to the mango tree at the backyard, and requested I pluck a fruit from the tree. Actually the ripe one.

I looked carefully and replied; sir, I can't see any ripe one here. He stared at me for few seconds, this time, my heartbeat increased. He has actually warned me to be prudent like King Solomon anytime I come close to him because the race is not for the ignorant anymore.

I adjusted my breath for another few seconds, I said again, sir, I can't find any ripe MANGO. Beautiful, he said, with a confident tone. Then he continued, nobody will know you when you are not ripe Nobody will attack you when your glory isn't showing. At this stage, you are like the unripe fruit which is to be ignored, deserted, overlooked because you are not nutritional

Here is your first lesson son, don't fight to be seen or noticed, rather work on your fruit to be ripe. It's the nature of human to ignore people that are not productive. To be noticed, work more on your seed and the roots it had produced under the ground

Come with me, this time, he took me to another tree, full of ripe fruits. Look around here and pluck two fruits for me. I look critically at the coconut tree, it was tall and uneasy to get, so I carefully took a big stick and hit it from afar, it fell to the ground so loud. Then I gave the two fruits to him. Then he said, "Here is it son, the riper you become, the more enemies you attract just like the coconut tree". It is the nature of human to come looking for you because you are ripe. They attack you just like you attacked the coconut tree.

Don't be moved, it is your right to fulfil destiny no matter the attack on you, keep growing. You are growing for two purposes:

----1 as a shade for those that are helpless to hide and

---2, as a food for those that are hungry, to eat and have their living

Understand this, your COURSE is beyond the attacker. Grow your lens of reasoning if you will last long as a fruitful tree.

You see that coconut tree, no matter how many you pluck, it won't dry up because of you. It will keep producing more coconut fruits. It is because it produces more that makes it relevant in my compound. If not, I would have uprooted it a long time ago. Just because your partner betray your love doesn't stop you from loving someone else. You are productive, and you need to show your commitments as a tree that is fruitful not as a tree that dries up because of one person that plugs from it.

Just because someone defrauds you is not enough reason not to trust again. Trust is part of what makes your tree productive. Keep trusting till it get you to your breakthrough. Just because a business partner betrays you doesn't mean your business should close down. Because people don't like what you do is not enough reason not to like yourself. Be your first admirer. Treat yourself with so much love and respect.

Nature will command people to take the course of likeness on you as you remain focused and enduring

See son, look at that bitter leaf at the other side of the compound, go and taste it. I moved a bit and I said, sir, I don't really like it. He smiled and said, son,

This shows it is not everyone that will like what you do, but you must never allow that determines how you grow.

That bitter leaf is never scared of growing no matter the hatred you have towards it because surely one day you will come looking for it and it will be your only saviour at that time. You will give 'it' all the attention you thought you couldn't give.

Don't stop growing son. When your enemies increase for no reason, pay attention, your success is taking another dimension they can't handle, the effect is dimensional. The bitter leaf will attract enemies because of the kind of projection and growth it takes but sooner, it will be the ultimate search for many in few months to come. You are an ultimate search for someone tomorrow, so learn to improve your skills of

LAST WORD

GOD IS FAITHFUL

The Lord God Almighty fought for the children of Israel and gave them victory over Pharaoh King of Egypt and that way put a new song in their mouths. In that glorious battle, He hurled both the horse and its rider into the sea and caused them to perish. This is overwhelming evidence that God is faithful to every promise He has made concerning His people.

So, no matter who your enemies may be or those behind them, you will jubilate over them because the Lord will give you victory over them. The Lord will do the same against your haters, antagonists and all your adversaries. They shall become raw materials for your testimony in Jesus name. Just be assured that by the faithfulness in God's promise, He will see you through every rough road, in Jesus name.

All you have to do is to always go to God in prayer reminding Him of His faithfulness and you will see Him performing His mercy as promised to our fathers.

God shall visit you for good.
 HE shall PROTECT you
 HE shall SUPPLY all your needs
 HE shall HANDOVER to you all you've been expecting

In life, dont expect anything from anyone. Because expectation, when not fulfilled, gives you pain.
When you get something without expecting it, It gives you pleasure.
Keep doing your part And leave the rest to God.

What is beauty to you? We don't agree on what constitutes physical beauty. This reflects God's own estimation that beauty is more than skin deep: it is located within a person's hidden depths. Our eyes need opening to find God's beauty in someone, while the Holy Spirit invites us to collaborate and nurture our inner beauty. God has slowly opened my eyes to determining beauty. It's not based upon any criteria I'd assumed. External beauty is, of course, attractive, not just physical beauty but that of art, literature, music, in fact across all of culture.

Yet, God's words to Samuel still resonate today: don't judge a book by its cover. I am invited to take time, to perceive and discover the hidden beauty, the God seed, that's so often overlooked. The shame of it is that individuals often fail to see their own beauty, having become so used to being ignored by a society consumed by its search for externals and the immediate gratification they appear to offer. And if I cannot see my own beauty, how can I perceive beauty in anyone else? But we are invited to take a journey with Jesus in recognising and revealing the true beauty with which we're surrounded every day.

Take your time to discover how beautiful you are to God. And as you accept your own beauty, give thanks and go in search of the real beauty in this world. I am now far slower to speak and make all-encompassing statements. God has quietened me and instructed me to seek the hidden inner beauty of each and every person.

Saints of God, we are in the midst of so many people who are envious and jealous of our promotion, increase, advancement, and good news. They will do everything in their power to discourage us from pressing forward with our dreams and visions. We have to separate ourselves from them as much as possible.

LAUGHTER'S THE BEST

Prediction: There will be a minor baby boom in 9 months, and then one day in 2033, we shall witness the rise of THE QUARANTEENS.
