

Glory in Our Differences.

Rev Dare Oluwaniyi.

In 1 Corinthians 9:20-21, Paul describes people with different practices and Identities—and then explains that he became like each group in order to tell them the good news.

Though we know our primary identity is in Jesus Christ, we each have a specific background that informs our life. Our ethnicity, family, and other identifiers were given to us by God. He formed every detail—and each of us uniquely bears His image. He wants us to honour His image in one another, no matter how different our backgrounds or circumstances.

That's part of what it means to belong to the body of Christ—to fully embrace one another's differences, understanding that God uses every part of who we are to bring Him glory. That should affect how we think of people who aren't like us, especially other believers. It should also influence the way we evangelize—letting people come as they are, free to be themselves.

Think about it

Can you think of a time when you became aware of ways you were different from a group? Can you remember if anything made you feel welcome, in spite of those differences? If not, what intensified your awareness of not fitting in? Consider how to apply your insights in your community.

What you've been believing God for, get ready to receive double. This is your time of double portion & supernatural inheritanc

Among those who truly believe in God and trust Him, giving thanks even for the least significant thing is a serious obligation. They know that when they appreciate God for the things He has done, it fosters the relationship with Him and makes Him committed to doing more for them. So, for them, thanksgiving occupies priority attention in their dealing with God. Today, many so-called believers do not belong to this group. They feel that the things God has done in their lives are not enough to show appreciation and so, do not value it. They belong to the company of those who clap during testimonies especially when there is a testimony of financial windfall. Meanwhile, they place little or no emphasis at all on healing, deliverance and intervention in other areas.

We must thank God for everything He does in our lives no matter how small or insignificant it appears. You must take a definite stand today to join the company of those who always find it expedient to thank God. When you make it a habit to thank God, it will help separate you from the company of those who murmur and complain; those who do not see anything good about the church or pastor.

As a believer who belongs to the company of thanks givers, your prayer should always border on others. Many people do not consider what God has done for them. Instead, they are more interested in those they feel He has not done.

So, as you join the company of thanks givers, joy and jubilation shall envelop your heart and all the blessing reserved for those that honour and obey God shall be your portion, in Jesus name.

Dear Lord,
please let whoever reads this today, receive all the love, joy & blessings their heart can hold In Jesus' name, Amen.

LEVITY-CUS

CAN someone send me this song " Jesus u love me two months old, 2 months old"

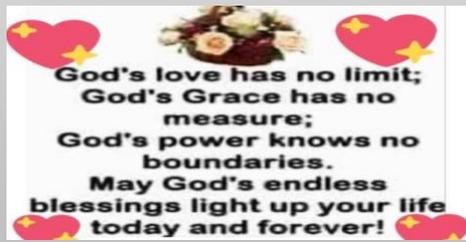

One guy bought TV. Out of happiness he left the shop without collecting the receipt. The store owner ran after the guy to give him the receipt. He sighted the guy some poles away and started calling him. People started asking who that is and he shouted the guy with the TV. Before he got there, the guy was almost beaten to death.

The store owner with the receipt asked what the guy did and everybody turned to him in shock. But you were shouting, Na thief, Na thief! The boy said Noooo, I was calling his name, Lateef, Lateef. Everybody became weak!!! May your name not put you into problem oo

I'm not where I need to be, but thank God I'm not where I used to be.

PRAYER POINTS

1. O God, give me the enabling grace to join the company of those that give thanks, in Jesus name.
2. Any power or evil voice ministering ingratitude in my heart; be uprooted, in Jesus name.
3. Any evil plant of ingratitude which God has not planted, but is manifesting and finding expression in my life; be rooted up, in Jesus name.
4. Any spirit assigned to bring gloominess and sorrow upon my life, be uprooted, in Jesus name.
5. Any power assigned to turn my joy into sorrow; die by fire, in Jesus name.
6. Any power opposing my freedom from yokes, bondage and captivity this month; receive rebuke by fire, in Jesus name.
7. Father, deliver me from all unfruitful work and labour, in Jesus name.
8. O God, my Father, lead me on the path to greatness, in Jesus name.
9. Father, unmask any hidden potential designed for greatness in my life, in Jesus name.

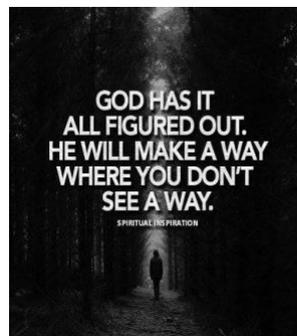

"WHEN BROTHERS FIGHT TO DEATH, A STRANGER INHERITS THEIR PROPERTY"
AFRICAN PROVERB

O God, You raised up St. John the Baptist to prepare a perfect people for Christ. Fill Your people with the joy of possessing His grace, and direct the minds of all the faithful in the way of peace and salvation.

Grant that as St. John was martyred for truth and justice, so we may energetically profess our Faith in You, and lead others to the Way, the Truth, and Eternal Life.

Amen.

Hello everybody. I am aware that some of you might have seen or read this analogy before but it is always a timely reminder.

You are holding a cup of coffee when someone comes along and bumps into you or shakes your arm, making you spill your coffee everywhere. Why did you spill the coffee? "Because someone bumped into me!!!"
Wrong answer.

You spilled the coffee because there was coffee in your cup. Had there been tea in the cup, you would have spilled tea. Whatever is inside the cup is what will spill out.

Therefore, when life comes along and shakes you (which WILL happen), whatever is inside you will come out. It's easy to fake it, until you get rattled.

So we have to ask ourselves... "What's in my cup?" When life gets tough, what spills over? Joy, gratefulness, peace and humility? Anger, bitterness, harsh words and reactions?

Life provides the cup. YOU choose how to fill it. Today, let's work towards filling our cups with gratitude, forgiveness, joy, words of affirmation and kindness, gentleness and love for others.

Stay healthy and safe. Take care

LET US PRAY

We need to make thanksgiving a habit and not just when we feel like it or when we are extremely happy! Learn to bless the Lord at all times... Amen

Perfect Timing

How many times has he said it but I didn't listen?

Instead I rush forward so full of self-confidence without even a tiny bit of the fear of God.

I want all the answers now.
I want to do something, anything.
I want, want, and want more.

Meanwhile the Lord says to me...

Wait.

The Lord tells me:

"Wait upon me. Let me do my good work. When it is time to act, you will know. I will tell you. You are my child. Trust in my timing and my plans. I will show you miracles, liberation, and healing. Trust in me.

Remember how I rose again on the third day. I am the Lord your God."

So I wait. And upon his word and his promises all my insecurity and fears disappear.

I wait upon the glory of God.
How marvelous it is.

TOPIC: HOW IDOLS AFFECTED THE ISRAELITES IN THE LAND OF CANAAN II

TEXT: Judges 4:1-24, 6:1-27

MEMORY VERSE: Judges 6:8-10 KJVS

[8] That the Lord sent a prophet unto the children of Israel, which said unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you forth out of the house of bondage; [9] And I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and drove them out from before you, and gave you their land; [10] And I said unto you, I am the Lord your God; fear not the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but ye have not obeyed my voice.

INTRODUCTION: As the year rolled by, after every deliverance, the Israelites soon after they committed whoredom and provoked the Lord unto anger and made Him deliver them into the hand of their enemies. These are the issues we are considering in this lesson.

LESSON

THE ISRAELITES FORSOOK THE LORD (PART TWO)

- And the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the Lord, when Ehud was dead, And the Lord..." (Judges 4:1-3).
 - According to the passage, what is oppression?
 - Who is Deborah? A, wife, a judge, or a prophetess?
- According to Judges 4:9 who is to take the honour for the journey? Deborah, Barak, Jaal, Heber's wife or God?
 - According to Judges 5:6-7 and 5:24-27, who among the two women really deserve more honour and why? Discuss.
- "And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the Lord..." (Judges 6:1-6)
 - According to the above passage, why did God deliver them into the hand of their enemies? Who were the enemies? How many years were they oppressed?
- God sent a prophet unto them, what did the prophet tell them that was responsible for their plight (Judges 6:7-10).
 - Who is Gideon? From which tribe of Israel did he come?
- According to Judges 6:13-15, Gideon asked the Angel three (3) questions, mention them.
 - Did Gideon ask for a sign before believing Him and doing His will?
 - Why do you think Gideon asked for a sign?

CONCLUSION: Our God is a man of war; He can fight with little or much. "The Lord is a man of war. The Lord is his name, Pharaoh's chariots and his host hast he cast into the sea; his chosen captains also are drowned in the red sea." (Exodus 15:3-4). Hallelujah.

THE FOUNTAIN YOUTHS

OVERCOMERS

PERSONAL ENEMY #1

Now we come to the crucial question: How do we cross over from the self-life to the Christ-life? Here are four simple steps that are essential.

1

KNOW that God has dealt with us in Christ.

"For we know that our old self was crucified with him" (Romans 6:6).

COUNT on the fact that we died with Christ and rose again. "...count yourselves dead to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus." (Romans 6:11)

God asks us to put our signature to the statement, "I have been crucified with Christ." This makes it real in our experience.

REALIZE that you belong to God.

"You are not your own, you were bought at a price." (1 Corinthians 6:19-20)

GIVE God His property.

"...offer yourselves to God, as those who have been brought from death to life; and offer the parts of your body to him as instruments of righteousness." (Romans 6:13)

We don't give ourselves to God in order to become His. We give ourselves to Him because we are His.

L.E. Maxwell expressed it like this, "If you are a child of God, if you have been redeemed by the precious blood of Christ, don't talk about giving God your time, your talents, your money, or your life—it all belongs to Him. Just quit stealing!"

Giving yourself to God is not a matter of holding up your hand or of going down front in a church. It is a matter of selling out completely to the Lord Jesus Christ. It is giving to Him that which belongs to Him—the throne of your heart. It is making Him Lord of everything in your life.

But before Jesus can be put on the throne of your life, self must be dethroned. The centre of your life must no longer be self but Christ. The big "I" must be crossed out. The Lord Jesus put His finger on the crux of the matter when he said,

"If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me." (Matthew 16:24)

That's it—deny himself: not things, but himself.

The Apostle Paul laid down the principle for victorious Christian living in one short sentence.

"I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me." (Galatians 2:20)

If you are sick of the self-life and ready to give God that which belongs to Him, here is a prayer you may want to pray: "Lord Jesus I belong to You.

Everything that I have and everything that I am is Yours, and I want You to have Your property. Help Yourself to my life. May Your will be done in my life and not mine."

READERS' DIGEST.

Mathematicians say LIFE is like a line segment drawn from point B to point D. What is point B to point D?

It's from point of Birth (B) to point of Death (D).

So life starts from the moment we are Born (B) until the day we Die (D).

But in the middle of B (Birth) and D (Death) is a mysterious C. What is C then? It is CHRIST.

If we put Christ in the middle of our life

(Birth--->Christ--->Death) our life will not end at D but extend to E. What is E? It's Eternal Life.

So all those who put Christ in the middle of their life have Eternal life after Death

But those who do not put Christ in the middle of their lives don't have Eternal life after Death but they have F (Fire).

Therefore the mathematical Equation or Definition of Life for Christians is $B + C + D = E$

Birth + Christ + Death = Eternal Life

And the mathematical Equation or Definition of Life for Unbelievers: $(B - C) + D = F$

Birth - Christ + Death = Fire

Any one that avoids C must surely lose E

TURN BACK TO GOD

Sow Your Interests In The Good Land

Sow your interests in the good land, that you can reap a bountiful harvest.

Jesus always read the signs of the time to speak to the people around him. He could distinctively and clearly explicate the situations, irrational rituals and burdensome traditions through his thought-provoking parables. He used to mesmerize the crowd, pronouncing each word authoritatively, unfurling the dark spots that remained untouched for years. More so, triggering the lot through parables loaded with challenges and queries which provoked them to ponder and prune the unessential aspects of religious life.

Sowing your interest means, directing your life prudently and meticulously in the right way as per your choices. One has to consider this: decisions and choices are absolutely OURS. Blaming others or getting disturbed over the failures are mere waste of time. Hence, one has to orient one's interests and sow in such places that would bring about a return of a hundred fold.

The Parable of the Sower

The Parable of the Sower (Mt: 13:1-8) is one of its rare kinds. Recline on a chair for a few minutes and contemplate, suppose you were a sower and the seeds are your interests. Where would you sow? If you would sow your interests on the bare surface of a road, won't people think of you as an insane person, because sowing the seeds (interests) on a path (a mean work) an undertaking that is detrimental to God and to the society) is ascribed as immaturity. There isn't any possibility for its growth for God's spirit doesn't rest on such works. At least the seeds on the path were useful to the birds of the air, but interests and energy invested on mean works are neither helpful to the sower nor to anyone on the earth.

God has given us the freedom to execute our interests productively, but what happens to most of us? Unessential aspects of the world seem to us more essential (priorities are driven away). Material things and unproductive pleasures sway a person for a few minutes, hours, days etc. but they may have ill-effect on him/her for the rest of the years (sometimes, for the rest of life). But happiness will hover over us when we put our hands to pursue worthwhile things. There are some people who are ambiguous about everything that happen around them, even anticipating calamities on the auspicious days. They are sceptics by thinking, inhaling pessimistic oxygen. They are the ones who consciously sow their interests on a rocky ground. They know that there is depth in the soil and no growth is possible, yet willingly they would dive in only, to be doomed. Perhaps, there is need to introspect and ask ourselves: Are we also one like them? Blaming God for the inconvenience and discomfort that we make in our lives?

Our choices shape our future

Our choices play a vital role in our lives. Our choices shape our future. As the adage goes; you are the architect of your life. If our foundation is strong, what comes over it would remain strong. If our interests like foundation are placed on the right place with the concomitant requirements no calamities could over-power it.

On the flip-side are people with thorny characters who always remain thorn in others flesh. Just as thorns which choke the plants from growing, so also persons of this character become a stumbling block in others' lives. They neither grow, nor allow others to grow. For them the motto, 'together to the top' seems ridiculous and absurd. If one has to sow their interests in the midst of these people (ground), they would harvest a bumper crop yielding HUNDRED FOLD OF GRIEF AND SORROWS.

Let us sow our interests in a fertile ground and God himself will escort us a hundred fold harvests.

The Fire

The joy and glory, that's what I want.
To be in the triumphant hall praising my King.
But I don't want to pass through the fire.

I fear the heat that burns off the rubbish and waste
— the wretched parts of my soul.

But I feel it anyways. My heart hurts and bleeds from my self inflicted wounds. From seeing those near me in the pain I caused.

Is this how my Lord felt? In the garden upon his knees crying out to his Father? When I sin I feel horrible. He felt the same sensation, crushing down upon him billions upon billions of times. His anguish infinitely deeper upon his pure and innocent heart.

Pass me through the fire, oh Lord. May I feel even a tiny part of what you felt. Let it burn into me - for as long as it takes. Then on my knees in tears I cry out, and you come to me. You enter and take hold.
You purify my soul.

And when it's all burned off and finished, I'm left only with gold.

I see you come back to me. My pain becomes strength. My sorrow now laughter. Tears of joy fall like rain.

Yes. Now I can enter into the hall of your Kingdom.
I witness the full brilliance of your risen glory.
Now and forever and ever.

Amen.

SHOCKING STORY

A lady went to her pastor crying uncontrollably, "Papa please help me"

How can I help you? Because I can't see any problem in you. She dipped her hand into her handbag and brought out a picture that she took many years ago. When the pastor saw the picture, he agreed that there was a serious problem.

My dear what's the problem? She replied: "daddy, I went to the hospital and I was diagnosed with HIV/ AIDS and I have been on medication but am tired, I just want to die".

As the pastor closed his eyes while crying to God in prayers, God said, tell her that she's carrying a report which is not hers. The pastor said to her, "hey my dear, carry your medical report, go and see another doctor, Jehovah says you are HIV Negative"

She left and went straight to a different doctor, after a test, she came out negative.

She came back to church and thank God for healing her of HIV/ AIDS.

No no no my dear, said the pastor. "My God did not heal you rather you were carrying a wrong report"

Hear me!!!

If you are poor that's not your report.

If you are in debts that's not your report.

If you are single, that's not your report.

If you are barren, that's not your report.

If you are sick, that's not your report.

If you are jobless, that's not your report.

If you are delayed, that's not your report.

If you are possessed, that's not your report.

If you fail exams, that's not your report.

That thing that's not making you happy in your life is not your report.

Am praying for you now, Heavenly Father will visit you today to give you your right report, people have been carrying wrong reports for years and years without knowing what they carry. But today, your bad report will change for good in Jesus name. Today is the end of bad reports in your life!

Sad Realities.....

- 1) Somewhere, a Christian is giving 'God' money in exchange for more money... They told him "if the money in your hands cannot meet your need, make it a seed"... Nothing is mentioned about the God who gave us His only Son when we only deserved hell. #SadReality
- 2) Somewhere, a young man has decided to pursue a full time ministry with no other means of income besides the testimonies of the papas who claimed they left everything for ministry and still got rich along the way. Nobody will tell this young man that times have changed. What worked for the fathers may not work for us. This young man will someday realize that the fathers misguided him and will turn fake, despite the fact that he was genuinely called, but missed it by trusting the testimonies of half sincere elders. #SadReality
- 3) Somewhere, a wife saved her prophet's phone number on her device as 'My Daddy' but saved her husband's number as 'Papa Junior'. In Church, she serves her Daddy water on her knees but disrespects Papa Jnr at home. #SadReality
- 4) Somewhere, a young pastor is preparing to feed his members snake 🐍 to demonstrate the 'supernatural'. #SadReality
- 5) Somewhere, a popular pastor is planning on how to collect another 5000 from 5,000 single ladies in exchange for their husbands. #SadReality
- 6) Somewhere, a boy is arranging to assassinate himself in order to prove that he is more powerful than his assassinated spiritual father. And the police will not arrest him because he is connected to some powerful papas. #SadReality
- 7) Somewhere, an underage girl is sucking the manhood of a foreign prophet in order to tap into the anointing upon his life. And if she reports the incident, she will be blamed for seducing the prophet. #SadReality
8. Somewhere, a house wife has been told by her prophet that her 12 year old underage nanny is a witch that was sent by the marine kingdom to destroy her home. And the woman is about to burn the girl's buttocks with an electric iron while praying in tongues. #SadReality
- 9) Somewhere on Facebook, some people monitor our posts without liking or commenting because they are afraid of been rebuked by their papas who are in error. They love peace more than truth yet on the last day, they think God will be smiling on their cowardice. #SadReality
- 10) Somewhere in somebody's heart, they know we are saying the truth but they don't like the way we are saying this truth yet they can't say the same truth in their own way. They think it is maturity to shut up in the face of gross manipulation. Imagine if Mandela, Martin Luther King etc. played that kind of maturity. But in this day, some people think that keeping quite in the face of falsehood is maturity. #SadReality
- 11) Somewhere, in a Pentecostal business centre, the senior pastor is making everyone believe that he knows better than everyone else and by extension is more anointed than everyone under him. In fact, he is erroneously called the angel of the house. Whereas he is only a fellow believer with equal spiritual rights and privileges before God. However, he managed to make himself look special. And even fellow priests (we all are priests) now pays him tithes as if he displaced Jesus as the high priest. #SadReality

LAST WORD ENTER HIS GATES WITH THANKSGIVING

The Lord has brought us safely to the end of the second quarter in another chaotic year. He has demonstrated His mercy in our lives as He spared us from all the dangers of the day and night, the arrows that fly by day and night and every snare of the fowler.

Overall, God has protected, provided and guided us all through the month. He fought all our battles, gave us victory over our enemies, and removed obstacles, hindrances and barriers from our ways. He never allowed the enemy to prevail or rejoice over our lives.

The Lord had shown us great mercy. He demonstrated His benevolence and magnanimity. He had done so much that we cannot count nor remember all of them. All we can do is to show appreciation unto Him and bless His name.

The Psalmist recommends that we bless the Lord with our entire being and forget not all His benefits. The benefits are too numerous to be counted. Yes! We just have to bless His holy name and appreciate Him for what He has done. Many people died during the same period, but God's mercy spared us. We know that we are not better or holier than those that died. Many of them were better than us in so many ways. But it has pleased God to preserve our lives. So, to Him alone, be all the glory.

While we appreciate everything God has done for us, likely, there are still other things we are expecting from Him. Of course, human wants are insatiable. So, there will always be one thing or the other being expected from God. However, they should not hinder us from recognizing and acknowledging the ones God has already done. So, we must appreciate Him for both the ones He has done and the ones He will do trusting that by His faithfulness, He will do them.

What are those things God has done in your life? Maybe He has granted you success in your business, job, career, academics and so on. Maybe He has blessed you financially, spiritually, health-wise and so on. You must not forget to bless His holy name because without Him it could not have been possible. Remember, it is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed.

MY AWESOME GOD,
On this day, I give thanks for all the love and blessings You have given me. My loving family, my caring friends, and the wonderful people I met in my life's journey. Lord please continue to bless, protect and guide them to overcome their challenges in life.
IN YOUR NAME, I PRAY. AMEN.

How do I explain to my children that Israel is protected by advanced aerial technology while Africa is protected by the God of Israel? 😊 @thenjwecomed

Start right now

Start today, right now even. Fill yourself with the Holy Spirit of God. Go to him. Ask him to fill you with his mercy, grace, and love.

You remember, don't you? When you would throw yourself at his feet... return to this.

Today is the day. No matter how you feel. Good or bad. Kneel before the throne of Christ, and he will pour his Spirit out upon you.

Don't wait till the darkness arrives. Get ready instead. So when the trials come, you are strong and courageous.

And when someone shows up needing love, you have plenty to give.

Start today. Right now even. Be filled with the Holy Spirit of God.

Husband and wife decided to attend a new church, the husband drives in an expensive car valued #25,000.000.00, each day they arrive church the husband will alight first, then he will move to the passenger seat to open the car for his wife to alight, The practice of opening the car for his wife continued over time,

Later other women in the church began to envy the woman, accordingly they began to challenge their poor husbands at home for not treating them like the man who opens car for his wife, that after all, the man is rich yet treats his wife like a queen.

It became a serious issue in some families. While women were praising the man, the men regarded him as foolish man. When the matter got to the man's notice, he requested permission from the pastor to address the church and his permission was granted

He said: the reason I open the car for my wife is because the car lock is faulty and can only be opened from outside, it will cost me about #500,000.00 to fix because it has a security chain that connects other systems in the car and I do not have such money now.

It is not my normal style to open car door for my wife, we are just managing the car problem.

Dearly beloved let's be careful regarding what we covet in other people. Some things we copy are problems people are trying to solve.
